This logo honors the 50th season of the franchise that began as the Titans of New York in 1960, became the Jets in 1963 and went on to shock the world in Super Bowl III, changing the face of the NFL. The Jets will celebrate 50 seasons as a franchise by wearing this special "50 Seasons" commemorative patch on their green and white uniforms in 2009.

The NFL is also commemorating 50 years of the AFL with this 50th Anniversary Season logo. The Jets will mark the occasion by wearing original Titans uniforms in three games vs. original AFL franchises in 2009: Navy jerseys Sept. 27 vs. Tennessee, and white jerseys Oct. 25 at Oakland and Nov. 1 vs Miami.

ATLANTIC HEALTH JETS TRAINING CENTER

ONE JETS DRIVE, FLORHAM PARK, NJ 07932 · BOROUGH INCORPORATED: 1899 · COUNTY: MORRIS

The Atlantic Health Jets Training Center in Florham Park, N.J. is the new home of the New York Jets. The team moved into the facility in a formal ribbon-cutting ceremony on September 2, 2008. Located at One Jets Drive, this 224,000 square-foot complex sitting on a majestic 27-acre campus provides players, coaches and staff of the Jets with a state-of-the-art learning, practice and working environment. The facility is a short drive to the Meadowlands and to Newark Liberty International Airport.

The complex has five full-length fields, three natural grass, one Sportexe synthetic turf field outdoors, and one Sportexe synthetic turf field House. The goalposts on two of the natural grass fields can be repositioned 90 degrees and re-lined in order to get maximum use out of the grass. Each field also has a permanent scoreboard.

Inside the complex, players use a 5,500-square-foot locker room, an almost 11,000-square-foot weight room, 10 classrooms and two individual study rooms, with each location just steps from the practice fields, as the facilities are strategically located in between the indoor facility and the outdoor fields. Sixty large-screen TV monitors throughout the building support all the Jets' coaching video functions as well as the club's business interests. The "Players Gallery," consisting of a life-size photo of cheering Jets fans, spans the corridor running the length of the building to remind everyone in the organization of the tremendous support the Jets receive from our faithful fans.

The Atlantic Health Jets Training Center, serving as the home base for the entire Jets organization, is equipped with sleekly-designed workstations and state-of-the-art technology to create an efficient and friendly work environment. An outdoor terrace, which overlooks the practice fields, provides a business entertainment area for both the team and its corporate partners. The training center can also be rented for parties, events and conferences. The Atlantic Health Jets Training Center provides the organization with a new competitive advantage and a new community to call home.

NEW JETS STADIUM

or 50 years, the Jets — the fans, the players, the organization — have been tenants in each of the stadiums in which the team has played its home games. In 2010, for the first time in Jets history, the team will have a stadium they can call home, a stadium that on Jets gamedays will bleed green. From the external LED signage to four massive video boards inside the bowl, to the new plaza and tailgating options, there will be no doubt that this building is the home of the Jets.

Getting to the game will be easier than ever with triple the amount of roadways and a brand new rail stop just outside one of the entrances to the building, opening for the 2009 season. Once at the stadium, fans will have many options for entertainment and tailgating before the game begins. The pregame radio show will be broadcast live from the new plaza area, where fans can also enjoy a vast array of food and shop for the newest Jets gear. At an entrance at the 50-yard line, fans will experience the Great Hall, a massive display of images of Jets greats past and present.

Inside the building, there will be wider concourses, eight times the number of concession stands and three times the number of restrooms than in the current building, offering fans options and convenience throughout the game. The intimate bowl seating, uncompromised sidelines, cutting-edge video boards and LED signage and state-of-the-art sound systems will enhance the game-watching experience.

One of the biggest upgrades in the new stadium is the availability of club seats. These offer the best seats in the stadium with unbelieveable access unlike anything available in lower-level and mezzanine-level clubs in sports venues. There are two types of clubs in the new building — the East and West Clubs, located on the mezzanine level sideline and the Coaches Club and the Great Hall Club, located on the east and west sides in the lower bowl between the 30-yard lines. Club seats offer access to VIP reserved parking, a private club entrance into the stadium as well as a host of other amenities and benefits. Visit www.newjetsstadium.com for more information.

MEDIA GUIDE 2009

THE NEW YORK JETS:

MISSION

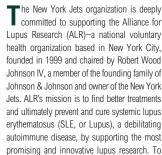

The New York Jets take great pride in playing an active role in making a year-round commitment to the tri-state community.

Programs funded by the New York Jets Foundation touch the lives of countless young men and women in the tri-state area. Over the past nine years, the Jets and their charitable foundation have raised or contributed more than $9 million to promote youth health, fitness and education, particularly in disadvantaged communities.

From fighting childhood obesity through the Generation Jets: Be Lean & Green initiative to launching a football team in an urban high school, urging students to eat right and move more, and supporting the efforts of the Alliance for Lupus Research, the New York Jets invest in programs that make a difference in the lives of others. In addition to the Jets Foundation, which supports our own extensive youth initiatives, the Jets partner with numerous established charitable organizations and participate in causes sponsored by the NFL.

Alliance for Lupus Research

date, ALR has committed over $55 million to lupus research projects at the most prestigious universities, medical schools and hospitals throughout the world.

Since 2001, the New York Jets have increased awareness of lupus and raised more than $6 million for research through the ALR Walk with Us to Cure Lupus program, proceeds from the annual New York Jets Kickoff Luncheon and other events in the tri-state area. To learn more, visit www.lupusresearch.org or call toll free, (800) 867-1743. Together, we will find a cure!

SchoolFood

Beginning in 2004 the New York Jets partnered with the New York City Department of Education's SchoolFood program in an effort to encourage all New York City public school students to eat healthy and take advantage of the nutritious meals that are served throughout the schools.

Through the SchoolFood program the Jets support an outreach campaign to encourage parents to submit school meal applications and help increase the amount of students who take advantage of free and reduced-price meals in New York City's public schools. The campaign also aims to educate parents and children about the nutritional reforms taking place in public school cafeterias, where a variety of healthy meals now are included on the menu. The campaign includes posters encouraging students to eat healthy foods and stay fit as well as a Jets sponsored sweepstakes for a trip to the National Football League Pro Bowl.

Heads Up!

n 2001 the New York Jets formed a community partnership with the Public Schools Athletic League (PSAL) to provide support to New York City public school football programs. The Jets and the PSAL expanded this partnership in 2005 and titled it Heads Up!.

Through an annual matching grant from the NFL's Youth Football Fund, the New York Jets donate $100,000 to the PSAL's football programs. This grant has helped to create nine new and developmental football teams and expand the C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League to over 75 programs throughout the New York City public school system.

NEWYORKJETS.COM

Beyond these grants, the Jets continue to support the PSAL in a variety of other ways. In addition to providing funding, the Jets' support for the PSAL has included hosting PSAL high school football coaches at team practices, creating "Captains' Day" for PSAL football team captains to spend a day at training camp each summer, and honoring PSAL football champions at a selected home game during the NFL season.

MOTIVATED POSITIVE STUDENTS

C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League

The New York Jets have teamed up with the New York City Department of Education (NYC DOE) to support their C.H.A.M.P.S. middle school flag football program. The program provides over 75 middle schools with afterschool opportunities for their students to learn the skills and techniques of football from qualified coaches. Each participant receives a T-shirt uniform provided by the Jets.

In 2005, the NYC DOE and the New York Jets created the Heads Up! program to support New York City public school football. The Jets commitment to the C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Flag Football League falls under the Heads Up! program.

Through the NYC DOE's C.H.A.M.P.S. Middle School Sport and Fitness League, students are empowered to become Cooperative, Healthy, Active, Motivated, Positive Students—for life. Regardless of athletic ability, student participants in C.H.A.M.P.S. are provided with opportunities to engage in a wide variety of physical activities before and after school, including traditional sports, non-traditional sports and fitness activities. The C.H.A.M.P.S. program promotes health-related fitness and sports skills that can be maintained long after school days are over.

Be A Champion

In the fall of 2008, the New York Jets along with the New York City Department of Education and Lime Connect, an organization that promotes employment for people with disabilities, launched "Be a Champion," an annual writing essay contest for students with disabilities. The contest, now open to grades three through twelve, is designed to encourage students with disabilities to reflect on concepts of achievement and success as they prepare for the challenges of the last years of secondary education and think about their options beyond high school. The contest also provides a valuable instructional opportunity for teachers to address transition with their students.

Tony Richardson and Lime Connect's CEO Rich Donovan serve as spokespeople for the program. Authors of winning essays are invited to attend a wrap-up event hosted by Tony Richardson and Rich Donovan. Mr. Donovan, who has cerebral palsy, is a successful entrepreneur as the principal owner of Integrated Process Solutions LLC and former portfolio manager for Merrill Lynch & Co.

them to be active for at least 60 minutes a day. In additional to national PSAs and online programs, Play 60 will also be implemented locally, as part of the NFL's in-school, after-school and team-based programs, from youth football to the Play 60 Challenge. The Play 60 Challenge is an in school curriculum sponsored by the National Football League, American Heart Association and locally by the American Dairy Association & Dairy Council, Inc. The Jets launched the initiative in 2006 and Brad Smith serves as the spokesperson.

Eat Right, Move More

aunched in 2006, the Eat Right, Move More campaign is a joint effort between the Jets, the New Jersey Department of Agriculture and the American Dairy Association & Dairy Council, Inc.'s 3-A-Day of Dairy campaign to encourage New Jersey school children to take advantage of healthy foods in their school cafeterias and become more active. The campaign also challenges schools to submit their meal menus to determine the five schools with the most creative meal selections each year. One of the five winning schools will be awarded the grand prize of a $5,000 grant, sponsored in part by the American Dairy Association & Dairy Council, Inc., for a cafeteria makeover and be recognized on field at a Jets home game. Jets tackle D'Brickashaw Ferguson is featured on posters in every NJ school telling students, "When I have a healthy meal, it helps me play my best. Your school cafeteria has a variety of nutritious foods to keep you going all day long. So get up, eat right and move more!"

Generation Jets Academy

eneration Jets Academy has served as the Sinchpin of the New York Jets community relations program since its inception in 2002. An education initiative, the primary goal of Generation Jets Academy is to provide elementary school students with enjoyable learning experiences that enhance their literacy. math skills, creativity, community awareness and self-esteem. The program provides students with personalized attention from caring and creative teachers, and a 50% increase in learning time each day. Generation Jets Academy is operated by the Gary Klinsky Children's Centers of the Brooklyn Bureau of Community Service.

Throughout the year Jets players makes appearances at the school as well as attend field trips with the students. Generation Jets Academy is located at the Ethan Allen School (P.S. 306) in East New York, Brooklyn.

NFL Auction

he New York Jets offer fans numerous exclusive auction items throughout the year, ranging from game-worn items to VIP gameday experiences, training camp experiences, private quarterback clinics and more. Fans can visit www.nflauction.nfl.com to place their bids. All proceeds from the auctions benefit the extensive work of the New York Jets Foundation.

Atlantic Health Jets Women's Organization

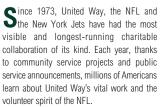

n 2008 the Jets Women's Organization and Atlantic Health partnered to form the Atlantic Health Jets Women's Organization (AHJWO). Through this partnership the AHJWO can accomplish their mission of the working together to build goodwill in the tri-state community through active volunteer participation. The AHJWO is an organization comprising the wives, fiancées and significant others of New York Jets players, coaches and select football support staff members. The Jets community relations department oversees this organization with the assistance of Michelle Ryan, wife of Rex Ryan, and Michelle Tannenbaum, wife of Mike Tannenbaum.

The AHJWO seeks to team up with select charities to assist in maximizing the impact of their events

The AHJWO serves as a unique and positive outlet in the community on behalf of the New York Jets. All members of the organization are encouraged to get involved and maximize their role to benefit others. The work the wives, fiancées and significant others of New York Jets players, coaches and select football support staff do would not be possible without the partnership with Atlantic Health.

United Way & Tix for Kids

Combining their rich histories of active community involvement, United Way of New York City and the New York Jets have teamed up to drive home the importance of community involvement. Our community outreach efforts include the Hometown Huddle, an annual hands-on volunteer project with players; the Gridiron Gala, New York City's premier charity event. and Tix for Kids.

Tix for Kids is a charitable ticket turn-back program that provides a vehicle for season ticket holders to release unused game tickets, which are then made available to underprivileged children throughout the New York region. The United Way has an extensive network of mentoring agencies such as Mentoring USA, The Mentoring Partnership of New York, The Children's Aid Society, Boys and Girls Clubs and Big Brothers—Big Sisters to name a few. Season ticket holders can donate tickets online through My Jets Account at www.newyorkjets. com or by mail to the following address:

HUDDLE

Hometown

Hometown Huddle

he NFL/United Way Hometown Huddle is an NFL-wide day of service that provides NFL players, coaches, wives and staff from each team the opportunity to participate in a variety of community-service activities, including such projects as building playgrounds, serving food to the homeless, visiting local military bases and funding afterschool programs for underserved children. Started in 1999 by the NFL and United Way, Hometown Huddle continues to help make a difference in local NFL communities.

Morris Area Wellness Partnership

o respond locally to the national childhood obesity epidemic, a group of key Morris County leaders came together and formed the Morris Area Wellness Partnership. The Morris Area Wellness Partnership represents local government, healthcare, community, education, foods and nutrition and built environment. Determined not just to stand on the sidelines as our youth are being diagnosed with diabetes and other serious illnesses related to obesity, the steering committee created the grassroots marketing campaign "Eat Smart-Move More" to serve as a community call-to-action for inspiring change at the local levels.

The Morris Area Wellness Partnership collaborated with Morristown Memorial Hospital and the Morris County Park Commission to officially launch its "Eat Smart-Move More" campaign this year at "Move it Morris Day." This free community event held at Lewis Morris County Park designed to showcase the various educational and physical health and wellness resources available in Morris County to children and their families.

Stadium Drives

E ach season the New York Jets host several stadium drives to collect donations and help create awareness for important issues facing our community. In 2009 the Jets will hold food, toy and coat drives. In addition, the Jets will host what is considered to be the only ALR Lupus Awareness Day at the Meadowlands on Sept. 27 vs. Tennessee, where approximately $30,000 has been collected over three years. The annual food drive on Nov. 15 vs. Jacksonville benefits the Interfaith Nutrition Network which addresses issues of hunger and homelessness on Long Island. The toy drive on Nov. 29 vs. Carolina supports the U.S. Marine Reserve Corps Toysfor-Tots program, which distributes toys to needy kids during the Christmas season and the annual coat drive on Dec. 20 vs. Atlanta supports Jersev Cares, which provides New Jersey's neediest citizens with coats during the winter months.

High School Coach of the Week

winner is recognized on Tuesday night as well as being awarded $1,000 for his high school's football program from NFL Charities. At the end of the high school football season, a Coach of the Year is selected. The winner of the Coach of the Year is awarded $2,000 for his high school's football program.

A League wide initiative, the High School Coach of the Week Program aids in the development of youth football. It gives high school coaches the recognition they deserve, and provides high schools with financial assistance in maintaining and upgrading their football programs.

New York Jets Taste of the NFL Benefit

reaturing the best of football, food and fun, the annual New York Jets Taste of the NFL Benefit raises money for

New York Jets Foundation. In 2009 the New York Jets Taste of the NFL raised approximately $200,000.

The Star-Ledger (NJ) Newspaper Football Fanfare/Kid Reporter of the Week

The Star-Ledger (NJ) Newspaper Football Fanfare/Kid Reporter of the Week program motivates participating classes with dozens of hands-on activities. Students study the newspaper to complete exercises that reinforce skills in language arts, geography, social studies, science, reading and math. All Star-Ledger participants receive the Star-Ledger delivered free, compliments of the New York Jets. Teachers receive a free curriculum guide, "Pigskin Geography," with dozens of challenging learning activities. Two students are selected each week to be the Jets' guests at each home game, where they serve as "kid reporters" and interview a Jets player. These student "player profiles" are featured each week in the sports pages of the Star-Ledger. A total of 104 teachers currently participate and about 20,000 students each week take part in this program. As a wrap-up for the program, students from several New Jersey schools are invited to an event held in the Meadowlands press box, where Jets players speak to them.

Walter Payton Man of the Year

S ince 1970, the NFL has awarded the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award to recognize a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence.

The New York Jets named fullback Tony Richardson the 2008 Jets Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. As the Jets award winner, Tony received $1,000 to donate to the Rich in Spirit Foundation, his 501(c)(3) organization of choice. He was eligible to win the national Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award and be recognized at a news conference during Super Bowl week in Tampa Bay. The national winner receives $25,000 to donate to the 501(c)(3) organization of his choice. Through his Rich in Spirit Foundation and the New York Jets community relations department, Tony has impacted many lives throughout the tri-state area, Kansas City and Minnesota.

Jets Sports Wrap

The New York Jets have partnered with Rock and Wrap it Up!, a national nonprofit organization whose mission is to feed all those who hunger using safely recovered edible leftover food from arenas where major concerts and sporting events occur.

The objective is to eliminate hunger, thereby reducing poverty. The savings generated by not having to provide food to these shelters will be used to attack the root causes of poverty. Since Rock and Wrap it Up!'s inception in 1990, more than 15 million pounds of food have been picked up, feeding over 30 million people. All donors are protected from liability by the Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Act of 1996.

Rock and Wrap it Up! accomplishes its goals of feeding the hungry through food recovery using local volunteers and delivering to neighborhood pantries and kitchens. The concept is simple: Once a band goes on stage, whatever food is left over that has been prepared but not served is picked up by Rock and Wrap it Up! volunteers and delivered to a local food shelter. Along the same premise, Rock and Wrap it Up! works with the Jets to pick up food from our home games that has been prepared and not served and deliver it to food shelters Mount Vernon Missionary Baptist and St. Rocco's Outreach - Project Solution in Newark, NJ.

Woody Johnson purchased the Jets in January 2000. Since then, the franchise has posted six winning seasons, appeared in six postseason games and captured an AFC East division title in 2002.

Johnson has instilled a philosophy that fans are the driving force behind a successful team. That philosophy permeates the culture of the entire organization from the front office to the field. In what has become a tradition at the Meadowlands, Johnson often walks the parking lot pre-game, moving from one tailgate party to the next in order to hear directly from the most loyal fans in the NFL.

Johnson also believes the organization should have every competitive advantage. In September 2008, the organization moved into the magnificent Atlantic Health Jets Training Center. Located at One Jets Drive, this 224,000-square-foot complex sitting on a majestic 27-acre campus in Florham Park, N.J., provides players, coaches and staff with a state-of-the-art learning, practice and working environment as well as unites the entire franchise under one roof.

In 2010, Johnson will deliver on his promise of giving the team and its fans a new home field when the New Jets Stadium opens its doors. This stadium will be an entirely green building for all Jets home games and events. The fan experience that is so important to Johnson will be vastly improved, from the parking lots to the new plaza to the concourses to the seats. This new stadium will be nothing like Jets fans have ever experienced — it will be the best venue in sports.

Johnson also firmly believes that the organization has a duty to enrich the greater community. The franchise's community relations efforts are aimed at promoting youth fitness, football and education. Over the past nine years, the Jets and their charitable foundation have raised or contributed more than $9 million to promote youth health, fitness and education, particularly in disadvantaged communities.

At the league level, Johnson works with team owners to address challenges faced by the NFL and ensure the continued prosperity of the league. Johnson served on the committee of owners that conducted the search that led to the selection of Roger Goodell as the NFL Commissioner. He is currently a member of the Business Ventures Committee, the Legislative Committee, the Investment Committee and the Los Angeles Stadium Committee.

Outside of the Jets, Johnson is active in a wide range of civic and philanthropic activities related to improving the health of millions of Americans. He is founder and chairman of the Alliance for Lupus Research, which has raised more than $50 million since 2000 to fund and accelerate research that will prevent, treat and cure lupus.

Johnson also serves as chairman of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International.

Johnson is chairman and CEO of The Johnson Company, Inc., a private investment company. He is a member of the founding family of Johnson & Johnson, the worldwide health-care company, and a trustee of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, which is the nation's largest philanthropic organization devoted to health and health care.

He has served in various capacities within government agencies and has been a strong advocate for increased government spending for diabetes and lupus research. He was appointed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services to a three-year term on the National Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases Advisory Council, which is affiliated with the National Institutes of Health. He also served a three-year term on the President's Export Council.

Johnson is active in the political arena and served as the National Finance Chair for the 2008 Republican Convention. He is a director of Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg's Fund to Advance New York City and a member of the board of the National September 11 Memorial and Museum at the World Trade Center. He also lends his time and talents to the Council on Foreign Relations and is a trustee of the Wildlife Conservation Society.

He recently received the Woodrow Wilson Award for Corporate Citizenship and began co-hosting a new segment, Playmakers, on Fox Business Network's America's Nightly Scoreboard with David Asman. On Playmakers, Asman and Johnson invite guests to discuss timely issues and topics affecting business, politics and sports. While the guests are experts in one of these areas, the issues and topics discussed not only affect the guest's sector but the nation and world at large.

Johnson has three daughters and two sons and lives in New York City with his wife, Suzanne. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona.

Before his work with the LMDC, Higgins served as press secretary to former New York City Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani, was director of corporate communications for Kozmo.com and was assistant editor of the Queens Tribune.

Higgins was honored as one of the top 40 executives under 40 in New York by Crain's New York Business and is a member of the board of PENCIL, an organization that fosters partnerships between the private sector and New York City schools. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from Queens College and a Juris Doctorate from the Fordham University School of Law, where he served on Law Review. Born in Bayside, NY and a survivor of testicular cancer, Higgins resides with his wife, Michele, their son Matthew Jr. and daughter Collette in Madison, NJ.

Matt Higgins is entering his sixth season with the Jets, and second as executive vice president of business operations. Higgins reports directly to Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson. Initially hired as vice president of strategic planning in 2004, he was elevated to senior vice president of business operations in 2007. Higgins oversees all elements of business operations, including marketing, sponsorships, legal, human resources, public affairs, media relations, merchandising, internet and broadcasting.

Prior to joining the Jets, Higgins was involved in the recovery of Lower Manhattan since Sept. 11, 2001. In the immediate aftermath of the attacks, he was named vice president for communications of the agency charged with rebuilding the World Trade Center site, the Lower Manhattan Development Corporation (LMDC). In May 2003, Higgins was named chief operating officer, where he provided daily oversight and direction to the staff of the LMDC and spearheaded major initiatives. During his tenure, the agency completed the largest

EXPERIENCE:

NFL: 9TH / Jets: 9TH

Thad Sheely is entering his ninth season with the Jets and his second as the executive vice president of stadium development and finance. Sheely reports directly to Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson. He was initially hired by the Jets as the vice president of stadium development in 2001.

He oversees all matters related to the New Jets Stadium, including the design and construction of the stadium, and the marketing and sales of sponsorship, suites and club seats. He was responsible for the construction and operation of the team's new training facility, the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center in Florham Park, NJ. Sheely also oversees team finance, information technology, ticketing operations and the development of new business ventures.

Prior to joining the Jets, Sheely was the Miami Heat's vice president of business development where he contributed in the effort to build the new American Airlines Arena and managed the team's diverse interests in sports, entertainment and facility development.

He began his career in sports as an investment banker with Prudential Securities' Sports Facility Finance Group, responsible for structuring financing solutions for professional sports teams. Sheely has served as an adjunct professor at NYU's Tisch School of Sports, Hospitality and Management, lecturing on sports facility finance.

He received an undergraduate degree from Columbia College where he was a three-year letterman in varsity heavyweight crew, and he received his MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business. He was raised in Youngstown, OH, and resides with his wife. Gabrielle, and son, Ben, in Montclair, NJ.

MIKE TANNENBAUM

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

EXPERIENCE: NFL: 16TH / JETS: 13TH

Mike Tannenbaum was named General Manager of the New York Jets on Feb. 7, 2006 and added the title of Executive Vice President on June 17, 2008.

Tannenbaum reports directly to Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson and is responsible for managing all football operations, including the coaching staff, overseeing pro and college scouting, supervising salary cap management and contract analysis, video and football technologies, equipment, operations, training and medical personnel, as well as training camp and turf management.

He is charged with establishing and implementing policies and practices, and is involved in all areas of financial planning with respect to personnel decisions in the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the college draft, trades, waivers, and all related football activities.

"Mike was right for this challenge because the job of General Manager has broadened to become more complex in the NFL," said Jets' Owner Woody Johnson on hiring Tannenbaum. "Mike has brought broad perspective to his role."

Tannenbaum's belief in developing players within the Jets' system mirrors his own ascent to the position of General Manager. He was first hired by the Jets on Feb. 19, 1997 by Bill Parcells as the Director of Player Contract Negotiations, which emphasized his expertise and knowledge of the salary cap.

For a decade, Tannenbaum paid his dues, learning from the likes of Parcells, Dick Haley and Terry Bradway while being involved in almost every conceivable type of transaction. After his first three seasons under Parcells and Haley, he added Pro Player Development to his title in 2000. When Bradway was hired as General Manager in 2001, Tannenbaum was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Director of Pro Personnel. Before being elevated to the GM role, Tannenbaum served as the team's Senior Vice President, Football Operations/Assistant General Manager.

Whether it was the widely-acclaimed signing of Curtis Martin in 1998, signing four first-round picks, including Jets defensive end Shaun Ellis in 2000, or trades for Pro Bowlers Thomas Jones in 2007 as well as Brett Favre and Kris Jenkins in 2008, Tannenbaum has grown from an administrator specializing in the salary cap to a General Manager who can evaluate personnel, negotiate contracts and lead an organization that has become known for aggressively exhausting all channels to acquire players.

Under Tannenbaum, the Jets have mined the draft for players that have started a combined total of 214 games. In 2008, the Jets led the league with seven Pro Bowl players, acquiring all seven players through trades (Brett Favre, Kris Jenkins, Thomas Jones), free agency (Alan Faneca) or the draft (Nick Mangold, Leon Washington, Darrelle Revis) since Tannenbaum assumed the GM role in 2006.

His first draft in 2006 began with the selection of two offensive linemen, as the Jets became the first team since the 1975 Rams to select two offensive linemen in the first round. Both D'Brickashaw Ferguson, chosen fourth overall, and Nick Mangold, selected 29th overall, were named to various NFL

All-Rookie teams and have started every game since joining the club, and Mangold was named to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

The 2006 draft also produced Leon Washington, a dynamic big-play threat who blossomed into a Pro Bowl returner and led the NFL with a team-record 2,332 combined yards in 2008 after he established a team single-season record with three kickoff returns for touchdowns in 2007. That draft class started 47 games in 2006 and helped the Jets advance to the first round of the NFL Playoffs with a record of 10-6 in Tannenbaum's first season at the helm, a six-win improvement from the 2005 campaign.

2007 continued Tannenbaum's trend of productive drafts as cornerback Darrelle Revis, the team's first round choice, and linebacker David Harris, selected in the second round, became starters and earned all-rookie recognition. Harris paced the team in tackles in 2007 and Revis has quickly developed into one of the NFL's top cornerbacks, earning Pro Bowl recognition in 2008 after leading the team in interceptions.

In 2008, Tannenbaum traded up into the first round for the team's second selection and tabbed tight end Dustin Keller, who stood second in receptions among rookie tight ends and finished tied for third among all NFL tight ends in catches over the final half of the regular season.

The Jets 2009 off-season again reflected a microcosm of Tannenbaum's belief as the club was active in free agency and the trade market and boldly traded a combination of players and draft choices to move up to the fifth spot of the draft.

Tannenbaum is intent on building from within, and has followed through on that pledge, signing wide receiver Jerricho Cotchery, guard Brandon Moore, defensive tackle Sione Pouha, safety Kerry Rhodes, and linebacker Bryan Thomas to long-term contract extensions.

Before coming to the Jets, the Needham, MA, native was with the New Orleans Saints in 1996 and the Cleveland Browns in 1995, spending both seasons as a player personnel assistant. He worked as an intern with the Pittsfield (NY) Mets of the New York-Penn League (Class A) in 1991 before moving on to Tulane Law School, where he graduated Cum Laude and earned his certificate in sports law while interning with the Saints.

Selected to the NFL General Managers Advisory Committee in 2008, Tannenbaum was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Sports Lawyers Association in 2008 and is also a member of the American Bar Association in the Sports and Entertainment division. He graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a degree in accounting, and earlier graduated from Needham High School in Boston.

Tannenbaum has been a longtime supporter of numerous charitable endeavors and has served as a Chairman for the Alliance for Lupus Research's Walk. Born in New York City, Tannenbaum and his wife, Michelle, reside in New Jersey with their daughter and son.

MICHAEL GERSTLE

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

EXPERIENCE:

NFL: 31ST / Jets: 31ST

Michael Gerstle is entering his 31st season with the Jets and eighth season as vice president of finance. Promoted to his current position in 2001, Gerstle oversees the organization's entire fiscal operation and is responsible for team financial and tax matters and interaction with the NFL as well as local and federal government officials.

Gerstle is responsible for financial reporting and planning, as well as tax and treasury matters. He was promoted to the position of controller in 1991 and held that position until 1993, after holding the position of assistant controller from 1979-90.

Gerstle is a 1970 graduate of the University of Wisconsin with a degree in accounting. He earned his MBA from Pace University in 1980. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and holds his CPA license from the state of New York. He began his career at the accounting firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell in 1970 as a junior accountant before moving to Degussa Chemical in 1974. He worked for Time Warner Cable and the Hertz Truck Division as budget director before joining the Jets in 1979. An avid golfer, Gerstle's other interests include reading, traveling and cooking. He and his wife, Donna, have a daughter, Michelle and a new grandson, Jack. The family resides in Staten Island, NY.

ROBERT D. JORDAN CFE

VICE PRESIDENT, DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION, NEW JETS STADIUM

EXPERIENCE:

NFL: 5[™] / Jets: 5[™]

Bob Jordan is in his fifth full season with the New York Jets as vice president, design and construction for the New Jets Stadium LLC. He is responsible for the design and development of the New Jets Stadium, scheduled to open in 2010.

Jordan has more than three decades of public assembly facility design and operation experience. Most recently, Jordan directed the operational design and development of the American Airlines Center (AAC) in Dallas, home of the NHL's Dallas Stars and the NBA's Dallas Mavericks. Prior to the AAC, Jordan directed the operations of Reunion Arena in Dallas.

Leading to the position in Dallas, Jordan had been involved in the design, management and operations of numerous major public assembly facility projects. Throughout his career, Jordan has focused on the efficiency and the uniqueness of the design and operation of facilities and how that efficiency can enhance the guest experience and maximize revenue opportunities.

Jordan began working in facilities as a stagehand in high school and has continued working in the industry in every department and discipline, including finance, marketing, operations and development. Jordan is a 1981 graduate of the University of Texas at Arlington with a BBA in finance. Immediately following his graduation, Jordan owned and operated his own special-events production and design firm before moving into the facility management field.

Originally from Woodstock, Ontario, Canada, Jordan is an avid hockey player. He is active in the International Association of Assembly Managers (IAAM), the leading association of public assembly facilities, and serves on the Board of Directors of The Sports Video Group, the association of sports broadcasting networks and companies. Jordan and his wife, Karyn, have two daughters and one son.

MIKE MINARCZYK

Mike Minarczyk is entering his 19th season with the Jets, overseeing all aspects of the accounting department. Minarczyk joined the Jets in 1991 as assistant controller after spending five years as an auditor with Ernst & Young, where he earned the professional accreditation of Certified Public Accountant.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from St. John's University in 1987 and returned for his MBA in finance, which he completed in 2000. Born in Queens, NY, Minarczyk and his wife, Diane, have two sons, Michael and Bryan.

BOB PARENTE

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING AND PRODUCTION

EXPERIENCE:

NFL: 33RD / Jets: 33RD

B ob Parente is entering his 33rd season with the Jets and ninth season as a vice president. He was promoted to vice president, business operations on May 22, 2001 and on Sept. 18, 2006 was named vice president, broadcasting & production.

In his current capacity, Parente manages broadcasting, multimedia production, game operations and special events. Parente works closely with SNY (SportsNet New York) on the production, scheduling and promotion of all team shows on SNY - "Jets Nation," "Jets Open Mic," "Jets Extra Point," "Jets Game Plan" and "Jets Post Game Live" as well as specials created for draft day and training camp coverage.

New in 2009, "Jets Flight Plan" will air on WCBS-TV Ch. 2. Past programming Parente produced for WCBS-TV included the Emmy Award-winning programs "Jets 24/7" and "Generation Jets." In 2004, he added the responsibility of executive producer for the Jets' radio broadcast on 1050

AM ESPN New York. Games are simulcast in New York on 77 WARC

Prior to his promotion to vice president, he served as executive director of business operations from 1993-2001. A 1977 graduate of Villanova University with a degree in political science, he also received an MBA from Pace University in Manhattan in 1983.

Parente has been a Jets season ticket holder since 1964 and has been to every home game since the age of nine, except while attending college.

In his spare time, the Jackson Heights, Queens native enjoys golfing and fishing and has served as an administrator and coach in the Long Island Junior Soccer League. He and his wife, Carmen, have two daughters, Diana, a graduate of Syracuse University, and Victoria, a graduate of Stanford University currently attending Stony Brook Medical School.

MARC RICCIO

VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE SALES

EXPERIENCE:

NFL: 14TH / Jets: 14TH

Marc Riccio is entering his 14th season with the New York Jets and will begin his fifth season as vice president, corporate sales. Riccio directs the corporate sales/business development group, the corporate partnership department and the organization's merchandise division.

The corporate sales/business development group is responsible for all major revenue generating initiatives, luxury suite sales and all sponsorship and advertising programs for the Jets. The corporate partnership department manages the day-to-day interaction and execution of all these partnership programs. These departments work with national and regional businesses to create and execute these platforms in several Jets TV shows, play-by-play radio, all Jets print properties, stadium signage, newyorkjets.com, special event marketing, premium hospitality and in-market consumer promotions.

Prior to his promotion, Riccio was senior director of marketing and business development where he was responsible for corporate sponsorship and advertising sales. He also spent five seasons as the director of marketing and senior marketing manager, respectively.

Before joining the Jets, Riccio served as the director of marketing and development for intercollegiate athletics at Hofstra University. During his seven years at Hofstra, he developed athletic marketing, sponsorship and fundraising programs.

A native of Canandaigua, NY, he holds a Bachelor of Arts in communications arts, television broadcasting and a Master of Business Administration in marketing from Hofstra University along with a Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law.

Riccio and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Tyler and Ryan, and a daughter, Jillian. The family resides in Rockville Centre, NY.

ROBERT SULLIVAN

VICE PRESIDENT, CONSUMER SALES AND SERVICE

EXPERIENCE:

NFL: 4TH / Jets: 1ST

Rob Sullivan is entering his fourth season in the NFL and first with the Jets as vice president, consumer sales and service. Sullivan is responsible for the relocation process from the Meadowlands to the New Jets Stadium, including the sale of personal seat licenses as well as the development of a customer service team for all club and non-club season ticket holders. He built a consumer sales and service team of 18 representatives to execute the seat relocation process as well as foster a culture of customer service.

Prior to joining the Jets, Sullivan was the senior director of consumer sales and marketing for the Oakland Raiders. Before working with the Raiders, Sullivan was the vice president, sales and service at Maloof Sports and Entertainment managing the season ticket renewals and new business acquisition process for the Sacramento Kings (NBA) and the Sacramento Monarchs (WNBA). Prior to that Sullivan spent nine years in Major League Baseball with the San Francisco Giants Baseball Club as the director, sales and marketing, leading a sales and service team responsible for selling charter seat licenses and luxury suites for the new home of the San Francisco Giants, Pacific Bell Park. Sullivan resides in New Jersey with his wife and two young children.

STEVE YARNELL

VICE PRESIDENT, SECURITY

EXPERIENCE:
NFL: 13TH / Jets: 13TH

Steve Yarnell is in his 13th season with the Jets and second season as the Vice President, Security. He joined the Jets after serving as a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

In his current position, Yarnell directs security at training camp, all home and away games and provides valuable assistance to the General Manager and Head Coach during the period prior to the NFL Draft with regard to draft-eligible players. He also acts as the Jets liaison for security-related matters with the NFL, federal, state and local law enforcement agencies. While with the FBI, Yarnell worked on criminal and terrorism matters, including the investigation of the 1993 World Trade Center bombing, the crash of TWA Flight 800 and was responsible for the security of the highest-paid terrorism informant in the history of the FBI while serving in the National Security Division from 1980-1997.

He organized the New York Giants' security during the 1991 playoffs and Super Bowl XXV, at which time there was a heightened threat of terrorism due to the impending war in the Persian Gulf. Yarnell also managed security for the New England Patriots at Super Bowl XXXI.

Yarnell was a three-year letterman in football at the U.S. Military Academy (Army) at West Point, where he was coached by then-Army assistant coach Bill Parcells. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree and was commissioned an officer in the Infantry while also an honor graduate of the US Army's Ranger School and Airborne School.

Yarnell, raised in Key Biscayne, FL, was named "Citizen of the Year" by the New York State Police in April, 2004. Yarnell and his wife, Jane, reside in Westfield, NJ.

REX RYAN

HEAD COACH

Born: 1962 Birthplace: Ardmore, OK College: SW Oklahoma State Hired: 1-21-09

Experience: NFL: 13th / Jets: 1st

On January 21, Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson introduced Rex Ryan as the new Jets head coach.

For Rex, it is a sort of homecoming, returning to the franchise he first experienced in 1968 when his father, Buddy, was hired as the defensive line coach under Weeb Ewbank. That season culminated in the Jets' Super Bowl III victory in Miami with a six-year-old Rex Ryan watching from the stands in the Orange Bowl.

"This is like a dream come true. My dad started his pro coaching career with the Jets, and in his first year they won the Super Bowl. I'd love to do that, duplicate that this year, and we're going to do everything we can to get that going." – REX RYAN

Look no further than the framed jerseys of Joe Namath, Winston Hill and Gerry Philbin hanging in Ryan's Atlantic Health Jets Training Center office to understand his appreciation of Jets history and to also shed some light on what the job means to him.

Ryan spent the last 10 seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, including 2008 as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. During Ryan's tenure, the Ravens defense never ranked lower than sixth in the NFL. From 1999-2008, the Ravens ranked first for fewest points allowed (17.1 per game), fewest rushing yards allowed per game (87.3), most shutouts (9), most takeaways (337), most interceptions (212), most interceptions for touchdowns (29) and third-down conversion defense (33.9 percent). They ranked second in the NFL from 1999-2008 in total defense (280.7 ypg) and fourth in sacks (416). In those 10 seasons, the Ravens allowed an NFL-low 18 100-yard rushers, including none over the last 35 games.

Ryan began his Ravens career as the defensive line coach for Brian Billick in 1999, when the Ravens defense finished second in the NFL in total defense and second against the run. In 2000, the Ravens defense allowed the fewest points in a 16-game season in NFL history (165) en route to winning Super Bowl XXXV.

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO REX...

- On his philosophy: We have a philosophy here -you've heard of the K.I.S.S. philosophy, which is 'Keep It Simple Stupid,' that's for somebody else. Ours is a K.I.L.L. philosophy; we're going to 'Keep It Likable and Learnable.'
- On preparation: You're going to see our aggressive mentality through our preparation. You're going to see that on the practice field. We either go through it walk through speed or full speed. That's how you do things here, and that's how we're going to get it done. You can't expect a guy to know how to play on Sunday when he hasn't seen it throughout the week. So we go full speed, and that's the way it's going to get done.
- On being aggressive: You're going to see an attack team here. We're going to be aggressive on both sides of the ball and with our special teams. It's all about our team here. It's a team concept that we're going to have with the Jets. Our offense is going to pick up our defense. Our defense will pick up our offense and our special teams will pick us up on both sides of the ball.
- On the offense and defense: Our offense is going to build up our defense by the way we work against each other, and vice versa. Some games our offense may need to score 21 points. Sometimes our defense may need to - shut them out. We're always going to pick each other up. It's about a team; it's not one side versus the other side, but we're going to compete against each other in practice.

- On being a physical football team: We will be an aggressive football team and a physical football team. We want to have an all weather offense and that starts with a running game, being able to run the football, because I think it's important. You've got to win when the snow falls to get where you want to go, and that's to win Super Bowls.
- On taking on this challenge: The only way I know how to handle a challenge is to hit that thing head on, and that's what we're going to do. The message to the rest of the league is, 'hey, the Jets are coming, and we're going to give you everything we've got, and that's going to be, I think, more than you can handle.' We're going to find out.
- On his coaching staff: There is no way that I could have envisioned putting together this kind of coaching staff. This is an all-star staff that I feel extremely fortunate to have. I am confident in my abilities, but I am a lot more confident in the abilities of these men. It's not something where these guys are working for me, they are working with me. It's our collective efforts that will lead this football team.

Ryan was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2005. During his four seasons in that role, the Ravens defense finished fifth (2005), first (2006), sixth (2007) and second (2008) in the NFL. In 2006, the defense allowed only 201 points and 264 yards per game as Ryan was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers Association.

In 2008, new Ravens Head Coach John Harbaugh named Ryan assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. The Ravens 2008 defense allowed 2611 yards per game, marking the fourth time since 1999 the Ravens finished second overall in the NFL. The 2008 Ravens allowed 244 points, third-fewest in the NFL, and led the NFL with 34 takeaways, 26 interceptions and a league-low 60.6 opponents' passer rating. Baltimore also yielded a league-low four rushing touchdowns.

"We knew when we convinced Rex to be with us in 2008, it would not be for long. He's not only ready to be a head coach. He's ready to be a successful head coach. He has a knack, a gift, for getting the most out of his players. He makes it interesting and fun for them, and they play hard for him." – JOHN HARBAUGH

Before joining the Ravens, Ryan was a defensive coordinator in college at Oklahoma (1998) and Cincinnati (1996-97). His first NFL coaching stint was with the Arizona Cardinals under his father, Buddy Ryan, when he oversaw the defensive line in 1994 and linebackers in 1995. Ryan has also coached at Morehead State (1990-93), New Mexico Highlands (1989) and Eastern Kentucky (1987-88).

Before Ryan became a coach himself, he had a chance to see one of the best defenses in NFL history up close, watching his father coach the 1985 Chicago Bears. He was a ball boy for those previous Bears teams early in his father's tenure as the defensive coordinator, getting to see legends like Walter Payton up close. He was off in college during that 1985 season, but on the sidelines during Super Bowl XX, when the Bears finished their 18-1 run with a 46-10 victory over New England and Buddy Ryan was carried off on his players' shoulders.

Ryan, 46, graduated from Stevenson High School in Prairie View, IL, and played football at SW Oklahoma State. He earned his Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree in Physical Education at Eastern Kentucky in 1988.

Ryan was born in Ardmore, OK. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Payton, named for Walter Payton, and Seth.

MIKE PETTINE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR VIRGINIA/DOYLESTOWN, PA

EXPERIENCE: NFL: 8TH / Jets: 1ST

- Mike Pettine was the first assistant coach hired by Head Coach Rex Ryan at the Jets. He was present at Ryan's introductory press conference, 1/21/09. Coach Ryan often refers to Pettine as his "right-hand man."
- ♦ Coach Ryan on Mike Pettine: "Mike is a rising star in this league. We're fortunate that we were able to get him on our staff."
- ♦ Pettine's background in football is similar to Coach Ryan's background. While Rex learned from his legendary coaching father, Buddy, Pettine's coaching roots trace to his father, Mike, Sr., the head coach for 33 years at Central Bucks West HS in Doylestown, PA. Pettine played for his dad before graduating in 1984, and assisted him for five seasons (1988-92). When Mike Sr. retired as a head coach after the 1999 season, he was the winningest coach in the history of Pennsylvania High School football with a career record of 326-42-4.
- ♦ Pettine spent the past four seasons coaching the outside linebackers for the Baltimore Ravens and has been with the Ravens organization since 2002. Over the past four seasons, the Ravens defense finished fifth (2005), first (2006), sixth (2007) and second (2008) in the NFL. In 2006, the defense allowed only 201 points and 264 yards per game.
- ♦ The Ravens 2008 defense allowed 261.1 yards per game, finishing second overall in the NFL. The 2008 Ravens allowed 244 points, third-fewest in the NFL, and led the NFL with 34 takeaways, 26 interceptions and a league-low 60.6 opponents' passer rating. Baltimore also yielded a league-low four rushing touchdowns.
- As the Ravens outside linebackers coach, Terrell Suggs, Adalius Thomas and Jarret Johnson are among the players he tutored on a defensive unit that had always been among the stinglest in the NFL.
- ♦ Before he was promoted to OLB coach in 2005, Pettine assisted Ryan in 2004 coaching the defensive line. In 2002-03, Pettine used his computer expertise to help develop

- playbooks, scouting reports and video analysis for the defensive coaches. Through the years he has produced innovative coaching programs that utilize football video to develop playbooks and analyze game video.
- ♦ Before entering the NFL, Pettine was the head coach at North Penn HS in Towamencin Township, PA, a suburb of Philadelphia. Pettine's 1999 team was featured in the ESPN documentary, "The Season." That team went 11-2, with the only two losses to his father's Central Bucks (CB) West team, which won the state title in his father's final season as a head coach. His dad came out of retirement to assist him during the 2001 season, Pettine's final year coaching in high school.
- Pettine's teams won 45 games in five seasons at North Penn. He was also the head coach at William Tennent HS in Warminster, PA for two seasons, leading that team to a school-record nine wins in 1996.
- After coaching with his dad for five seasons, Pettine served as a graduate assistant on Johnny Majors' coaching staff at the University of Pittsburgh for two seasons (1993-94), where coincidentally he crossed paths with future Jets great Curtis Martin.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦Pettine played free safety at Virginia under Head Coach George Welsh and was a two-year letterman (1986-87). He led the team in interceptions in 1986, including a schoolrecord three in one contest vs. North Carolina State.
- ♦ He was an All-State guarterback and defensive back at CB West.

OFF THE FIELD

- ♦ Mike has three children, Megan, Ryan and Katie.
- ♦ Graduated from the University of Virginia with a degree in Economics.
- ♦Played basketball in high school.

BRIAN SCHOTTENHEIMER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR FLORIDA/OVERLAND PARK, KS

EXPERIENCE: NFL: 11TH / Jets: 4TH

- ♦ Brian Schottenheimer was retained by Head Coach Rex Ryan as the offensive coordinator after one of the best offensive seasons in franchise history. He was originally named the Jets' offensive coordinator, 1/30/06, coming to the Jets after serving as quarterbacks coach for the San Diego Chargers for four seasons (2002-05). Schottenheimer's offensive scheme features multiple sets and flexibility, as well as a no-huddle component.
- ♦ After acquiring Brett Favre, 8/6/08, the 2008 Jets scored 405 points, only the third time in franchise history that they reached 400 points, and their 42 offensive touchdowns were their most since 1998. The offense ranked 16th in the NFL in total yards and ninth in rushing yards, both rankings were the team's highest since 2004. The running game, led by Pro Bowler Thomas Jones (AFC-leading 1,312 rushing yards, team-record 13 rushing touchdowns) and Leon Washington (448 rushing yards, six rushing touchdowns), averaged 4.75 yards per carry, fifth in the league and the best season mark in franchise history.
- ♦ In 2007, his offense produced a 1,000-yard rusher in Jones (1,119) and 1,000-yard receiver in Jerricho Cotchery (1,130).
- In 2006, Chad Pennington completed 65 percent of his passes for a career-best 3,352 yards, winning NFL Comeback Player of the Year, while Cotchery (82-961-6) and Laveranues Coles (91-1,098-6) combined for the most catches by any receiver tandem in Jets franchise history.
- ♦At San Diego, he was instrumental in the development of Chargers' quarterback Drew Brees. Under his tutelage in 2004, Brees won NFL Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl berth when he threw 27 touchdown passes and completed over 65 percent of his passes.
- Prior to his stint in San Diego, worked for his father, Marty, on two previous occasions – as quarterbacks' coach for the Washington Redskins in 2001 and as offensive assistant/ quality control coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1998.
- ♦ Gained two years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, tutoring tight ends at Southern California in 2000 and wide receivers at Syracuse in 1999.
- Made his NFL coaching debut in 1997 as an offensive assistant for the St. Louis Rams.

BOB SUTTON

NEWYORKJETS.COM

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT/LINEBACKERS EASTERN MICHIGAN/YPSILANTI, MI

EXPERIENCE: NFL: 10TH / Jets: 10TH

- Bob Sutton was retained by Head Coach Rex Ryan as senior defensive assistant/linebackers after three years as defensive coordinator.
- ♦ Spent first six seasons with the Jets coaching linebackers.
- ♦ Sutton's 2008 unit was ranked near the top of the NFL in rushing defense (94.9) and yards per rush allowed (3.7), the Jets best statistical showing since 1993...Five defensive touchdowns were a Jets franchise record...Defense registered 41 sacks, seventh in NFL and 30 takeaways were tied for fifth in the NFL.
- ♦ In 2005, coached LB Jonathan Vilma to his first Pro Bowl appearance after he finished with an NFL-leading 187 tackles...Vilma became only the third Jet in Club history to be voted AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year after finishing the 2004 season with 118 tackles, two sacks, three pressures and three interceptions.
- ♦ In 2004, fielded three new full-time starting linebackers (Eric Barton, Victor Hobson and Vilma) who combined for 297 tackles, 4.5 sacks, nine passes defensed and five interceptions....The Jets defense finished fourth in the NFL in fewest points allowed with 261 and fifth against the run, holding opponents to 97.9 rushing yards per game.
- ♦ In 2001, the Jets were the only team to place three linebackers in the NFL's Top 25 in tackles, with all three starters over 100 tackles...In his first year with the Jets in 2000, he oversaw a Jets' 3-4 defense under Al Groh which was led consistently by play from Marvin Jones' 135 tackles and Mo Lewis' 88 tackles and team-high 10 sacks, which earned Lewis his third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.
- ♦ Spent nine years as the head coach at Army (1991-99) and achieved remarkable success, including guiding the Cadets to just their fourth Bowl appearance...Nine seasons placed him second in tenure at Army, trailing only legendary Earl "Red" Blaik, who guided the Cadets for 18 seasons...Finished his Army career with a mark of 44-54-1.
- Rattled off 11 straight victories from 1995-96, the longest winning streak at the school in five decades...Finished as the nation's top-ranked rushing offense in 1993, '96 and '98, and only once in those years did the Cadets not finish in the top five rushing attacks in the country.

- ♦ In 1996, the Cadets posted one of their finest seasons in history, notching an Army-record 10 victories and earning a spot in the Independence Bowl...His offense set a school record for total offense in a single season, while the defense, led by current Jets assistant special teams coach, Ben Kotwica, was ranked ninth in total defense and sixth in rushing defense...Sutton became the first Army coach to defeat Navy five straight times (1992-96).
- ♦ The 1996 Army team won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy...His efforts were recognized as he won the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award, making him the first Army coach since Tom Cahill in 1966 to earn the award...One of six finalists for the Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award, was named the Metropolitan Football Writers Division I Coach of the Year and the GTE Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA...The Cadets finished the season ranked in the top 25 for the first time since 1985.

SCOTT COHEN

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

EXPERIENCE:
NFL: 18TH / Jets: 2ND

Scott Cohen is entering his 18th NFL season and his second with the Jets as assistant general manager. Cohen assists General Manager Mike Tannenbaum on the day-to-day operations of the team with a primary focus on player personnel. In addition to overseeing the propersonnel department, he prepares advance reports for the coaches, evaluates the top college players for the draft and will develop a plan for free agency.

Prior to joining the Jets, he spent seven seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles as the director of pro personnel, where he evaluated players on NFL rosters for trades and acquiring potential free agents, as well as reviewed players in other pro leagues (Arena League and CFL). Cohen also provided advance scouting reports in addition to managing the pro scouting department and handling player tryouts. While with the Eagles, he was involved each year in evaluating players for the draft as well as draft day trades and projecting other team's needs and selections. He has also negotiated contracts for undrafted and future free agents.

Cohen joined the Eagles in 2001 after spending the previous two seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as assistant director of pro scouting. He was responsible for scouting teams that the Jaguars would not play, players in other pro leagues, and some advance scouting. Prior to that, Cohen spent seven seasons with the Washington Redskins where he he worked his way up from intern, to training camp director, to scouting administrator, to college scout. He also evaluated players at the pro level.

Born in Philadelphia, Cohen was raised in Cherry Hill, NJ, and attended Cherry Hill West HS. A four-year starter at Dickinson College where he was a wide receiver in football and a pitcher in baseball, he earned an economics degree from Dickinson in 1991 and a master's degree in sports management at the University of Massachusetts in 1992. He and his wife, Linda, have two children, Hannah and Andrew.

TERRY BRADWAY

NEWYORKJETS.COM

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

erry Bradway enters his ninth season with the New York Jets and second as senior personnel executive. In this capacity, Bradway will continue to play a key role, remaining actively involved with all strategic initiatives surrounding the evaluation and acquisition of personnel and teaming up with Joey Clinkscales to orchestrate the team's efforts surrounding the draft. From 2006-08, Bradway oversaw the entire Jets' college and pro scouting operations and the year-long process leading up to the NFL Draft. For five seasons (2001-05), he served as the club's general manager and executive vice president. During that time, the Jets appeared in the postseason three times in four years (2001, 2002, 2004), earning Bradway Executive of the Year honors in 2002 by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association.

Bradway was originally hired in 2001 by Woody Johnson after having worked for the Kansas City Chiefs for the previous nine seasons in the team's player personnel department. He held several positions in Kansas City: vice president of player personnel (2000), director of player personnel (1997-99) and director of college scouting (1992-96). The Chiefs had seven winning seasons and five postseason appearances in his nine years.

Prior to the Chiefs, he spent six years (1986-91) as a scout with the New York Giants, participating in two Super Bowl runs (XXI and XXV). Bradway also spent three seasons (1983-85) as assistant director of player personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, highlighted by three championship game appearances and two USFL titles. Bradway started his football career as a graduate assistant coaching the receivers at the University of Cincinnati in 1978 and as running backs' coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy in 1979.

The former defensive back at Trenton State (now the College of New Jersey), earned three letters there before transferring and graduating from Glassboro State (now Rowan University) with a bachelors degree in health/physical education in 1978. He earned his masters degree in health and physical education from Glassboro/Rowan in 1982. Born in Atlantic City, he was inducted into the Holy Spirit HS (Absecon, NJ) Hall of Fame in October 2004. Bradway and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Mike and Tommy and a daughter, Jenny. Jenny is currently playing lacrosse at The University of Delaware and Mike, who played TE and graduated from Villanova, is currently working in the Philadelphia Eagles' scouting department.

JOJO WOODEN

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

EXPERIENCE: NFL: 13TH / Jets: 13TH

JoJo Wooden is entering his 13th season with the Jets and his fourth as assistant director of player personnel. He assists in pro scouting, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, unrestricted free agency and evaluating players not on the rosters of professional teams. Wooden also is responsible for scouting college players throughout the country in preparation for the NFL Draft. His previous titles with the Jets included director of pro scouting from 2004-2006, assistant director of pro scouting in 2003, senior pro scout/AFC from 2001-02, pro scout from 1999-2000 and pro personnel assistant from 1997-1998 where he helped track NFL players and scout NFL Europe, CFL, Arena League, and college players.

A 1993 graduate of Syracuse University where he earned a bachelors degree in sociology, Wooden was a two-year starter at outside linebacker for the Orangemen and a member of five Bowl teams, including Syracuse's 1991 and 1992 teams that each went 10-2 and earned top-10 rankings each season. He went to training camp with the Arizona Cardinals in 1993.

Wooden's older brother, Terry, was a nine-year NFL linebacker who currently works for the Saints as a West Coast college scout. Born in Hartford, CT, Wooden, who graduated from Farmington HS, and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters.

ARI NISSIM

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

EXPERIENCE: NFL: 5TH / Jets: 4TH

Ari Nissim is in his fourth season with the New York Jets, third as director of football administration. His primary responsibilities are serving as the lead negotiator for the majority of the player contracts, managing the team's salary cap and working closely with General Manager Mike Tannenbaum on strategic cap planning. His other responsibilities include researching and forecasting trends for the NFL salary cap and player costs; as well as monitoring club compliance with the NFL collective bargaining agreement and NFL player personnel rules.

Nissim joined the Jets' front office in February, 2006, as the manager of football administration after serving as staff counsel/director of research for athletic resource management, where he helped in contract negotiations and representing players in league hearings. He interned with NFL Management Council during the 2004 season, monitoring and analyzing the league-wide salary cap, in addition to interning with the Jets' pro personnel department in 2003 analyzing contract issues and game timing projects while attending law school.

Nissim received his Juris Doctorate from Tulane University School of Law in 2004 and his bachelors degree from the University of Wisconsin in 2000. His article The Trading Game: NFL Free Agency, the Salary Cap, and a Proposal for Greater Trading Flexibility was published in the 11th Edition of the Sports Lawyers Journal in 2004. Admitted to practice law in New York State, Nissim was born and raised in New York City, and graduated from the Columbia Grammar and Preparatory School.

SEASON-BY-SEASON REVIEW

2008 (JETS) Led Jets with 71 receptions for 858 yards and recorded five touchdowns receiving (second on team)... Added a 54-yard kickoff return and two rushes for eight yards. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (12/28 vs. MIA)... Scored second career two-point conversion on a pass from Brett Favre. (12/21 at SEA)...Led all receivers with six receptions for 81 yards. (12/14 vs. BUF)...Caught an 11-vard touchdown pass. (11/13 at NE)...In the second guarter with the score 17-6, he had three receptions for 79 yards on a five-play touchdown drive...The drive started when Brett Favre hit him on an 18-yarder...Next, he pulled in a 46-varder with one hand, against his helmet, while being interfered with, to get to the NE 16... Two plays later he hauled in a 15-yard touchdown catch by stretching the ball over the goal line. (11/2 at BUF)...Led all receivers for the second consecutive week with six catches for 62 yards... Named Jets Offensive Player of the Game. (10/26 vs. KC)... Led all receivers with nine receptions for a season-high 102 yards, his eighth-career 100-yard receiving game. (10/12 vs. CIN)...Tied for team lead with eight receptions for 85 yards. (9/28 vs. ARI)...Caught scoring passes of 17 yards and 40 yards. (9/22 at SD)...Led all receivers with a careerhigh 10 receptions for 76 yards. (9/7 at MIA)...During the Jets second possession of the game hooked up with Favre on a 56-yard touchdown pass with 8:42 remaining in the first quarter, the longest touchdown reception of the season for the Jets.

2007 (JETS) Finished with 1,130 yards on 82 receptions and two touchdowns...Posted the 23rd 1,000-yard receiving season in franchise history, becoming the 12th player in franchise history to post more than 1,000 yards in a season...The 1,130 vards ties him for 13th-highest in Jets history with Art Powell (1962)...The 82 receptions ties him for ninth with his own 2006 effort. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (12/30 vs. KC)...Rushed once for a career-long 16 yards. (12/23 at TEN)...Caught eight passes for 152 yards and one touchdown...Pulled in 48yard and 41-yard completions, marking the second time in 2007 he caught two passes of 40-plus yards in the same game. (10/21 at CIN)... Snagged his first touchdown reception of the season, a 32-yarder from Chad Pennington on the final play from scrimmage...Recorded one kickoff return for 32 yards. (9/30 at BUF)...Recorded his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and the fourth of his career with eight catches for 107 yards. (9/16 at BAL)...Logged seven catches for a career-high 165 yards, the most yards by a Jets receiver since Keyshawn Johnson vs. NE (9/12/99)...His 93 yards after the catch (YAC) marked the most since Johnson recorded 100 YAC in that same game...Caught passes from Kellen Clemens of 44 yards and 50 yards in the fourth quarter.

2006 (JETS) Started every game and recorded a breakout season (82-961-6), with the ninth-highest total of receptions in a season. POSTSEASON: (1/6 at NE)...Became the 10th player in Jets' postseason history to record a 100-yard receiving game, catching four passes for 100 yards and a touchdown in the Wild Card Playoff Game loss. His 77-yard touchdown catch-and-run from Chad Pennington was the longest offensive play in Jets' postseason history. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (12/3 at GB)...Led the team with nine catches for 99 yards and added a 12-yard touchdown catch. (11/26 vs. HOU)... Registered seven catches for 110 yards, the second 100-yard receiving game of his career. (11/12 at NE)...Jets' Offensive Player of the Week when he caught six passes for 70 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown. (9/17 vs. NE)...Set a careerhigh with a memorable 71-yard touchdown reception where he jumped to haul in a Chad Pennington pass, absorbed a huge hit and landed on a defensive back...Knowing his knee had never touched the ground, he sprang to his feet and ran unimpeded to the end zone. (9/10 at TEN)... Hauled in his first career receiving touchdown in the season opener, an eight-yarder from Pennington.

2005 (JETS) Served as the team's primary punt returner, with 23 returns for 182 yards (7.8)...Caught 19 passes for 251 yards in a reserve role. (11/27 vs. NO)...Led the team with four receptions for 72 yards, including a 33-yard reception. (11/13 at CAR)...Made his first career start, lining up as part of a three-wide receiver set.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (12/28 at MIA)...Split two sacks of Jay Fiedler with Josh Evans and Jason Ferguson while leading the line with seven tackles. (11/16 at IND)... Crossed into double-digit sacks when he dropped Peyton Manning for an eight-yard loss. (11/2 vs. NYG)...When he and Dewayne Robertson split a sack of Kerry Collins, it marked his 11th straight game with a sack, a club record. (10/19 at HOU)...Recorded 10 tackles (four solo), and tackled David Carr for a seven-yard sack. (10/12 vs. BUF)... Earned a defensive game ball with his two sacks of Drew Bledsoe in a victory. (9/21 at NE)...Put up a career-high tying 12 tackles and a sack of Tom Brady. (9/14 vs. MIA)...Registered 12 tackles and a sack of Jay Fiedler. (9/4 at WAS)...Posted 10 tackles and two sacks of Patrick Ramsey in the opener.

2002 (JETS) Started all 16 games, recording 49 tackles, four sacks, six pass breakups, and a forced fumble...Closed the regular season with sacks in three consecutive games. POSTSEASON: Had a total of eight tackles in the two playoff games. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (12/29 vs. GB)...Registered a seven-yard sack of Brett Favre in the division-clinching victory. (12/22 at NE)...Posted a sack of Tom Brady and added four tackles and two pressures in the victory. (12/15 at CHI)...Tipped a pass and sacked Chris Chandler. (12/2 at OAK)...Led the defensive line with six tackles, including a first-quarter seven-yard sack of Rich Gannon. (11/3 at SD) ... Named Jets Co-Defensive Player of the Game with Josh Evans, recording a forced fumble, two tackles and a pass deflection.

2001 (JETS) Played in all 16 games and started 15, registering 59 tackles, two forced fumbles and was second on the team in sacks with five...Started the opener at defensive tackle before moving to defensive end in the second game. POSTSEASON: (1/12 at OAK)...Started his first postseason game and recorded three tackles. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (12/9 at PIT)...Sacked Kordell Stewart for a three-yard loss while recording a season-high eight tackles. (12/2 vs. NE)...Recorded a sack of Tom Brady for a seven-yard loss. (11/18 at MIA)...Logged three tackles and two hits on the quarterback as the Jets shut out MIA on the road for the first time since 1970. (10/14 vs. MIA)...Did not start but registered six tackles and forced a fumble which set up a touchdown...Credited with sacking Jay Fiedler 1.5 times. (9/23 at NE)...Started at defensive end for the first time this season, and forced a fumble in the victory. (9/9 vs. IND)... Made his only start of the year at defensive tackle.

2000 (JETS) Despite starting only two games as a rookie, he led all Jets defensive linemen in sacks (8.5), which placed him behind only 1995 rookie Hugh Douglas (10) for most sacks by a Jets rookie...Also recorded 53 tackles, three pass breakups and his only career interception. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (11/19 at MIA)...Picked off Damon Huard's pass in the fourth quarter to preserve a 13-3 lead and set up the clinching touchdown in a 20-3 victory. (9/3 at GB)...Made an impact in his NFL debut at Lambeau Field when he stripsacked Brett Favre and recovered an Ahman Green fumble.

BEFORE THE NFL

- ♦ Finished his collegiate career at Tennessee with 105 tackles, 12.5 sacks, three forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.
- ♦Lone collegiate interception, vs. Auburn in 1998, he returned 90 yards for a touchdown.
- ♦Was selected All-SEC first-team as a senior, where he started every game at left end, recorded 42 tackles, a teamhigh 8.5 sacks (minus 82 yards) and 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage (minus 25 yards)...Also had a pass breakup and two fumble recoveries.
- ♦ Ranked among the nation's top 100 prospects by Scholastic Coach Magazine, adding All-State honors twice and All-Region accolades three times at Westside (SC) HS.

- ♦ Recorded 174 tackles and 35 sacks during his senior campaign, and helped lead his school to a 12-2 record and the state semifinals.
- ♦ Also earned All-State honors in basketball at Westside.

OFF THE FIELD

- ♦ Nicknamed "Big Katt."
- Wife, Cecile, daughter, Keshona and two sons, Jordan and Skyler.
- ♦Teamed up with The Muscular Dystrophy Association "Muscle Team" the past seven seasons...Ellis has worked closely with the MDA during his tenure in NY, and has hosted children afflicted with the illness at the Jets' training camps and regular-season games.
- Embodied the NFL's commitment to community service by supporting programs benefiting the children and youth of New York City at the 13th Annual Gridiron Gala in 2006.

- ♦ Earned the GB 2006 Walter Payton Man of the Year honor for his excellence on the field and in the community.
- ♦Participated in Salvation Army bell-ringing contest against DET's Marcus Pollard; had similar contest against then-MIN tight end Byron Chamberlain.

- ♦Filmed a Salvation Army commercial in 2004 for the bell-ringing campaign, in which he chased a tightfisted customer through a grocery store for his holiday donations.
- ♦ Spent evenings in Dec. 2002 and 2003 with cancer patients at Green Bay's St. Vincent Hospital, reading Christmas stories and handing out gifts.
- ♦ Spent roughly $5,000 in 2002 to buy championship rings for the Miami Edison High School girls basketball team. ...The inner-city school, which captured its second straight Class 6A state title in 2002, had gone without rings following its initial championship the prior year...Was "recruited" to purchase the rings by Kiejon Johnson, a forward on the Edison team and the daughter of his collegiate position coach, Curtis Johnson.
- ♦In spring 2005, was one of 16 pro athletes to compete in ESPN Bowling Night, but fellow Miami (Fla.) product Willis McGahee eliminated Franks in the first round.
- ♦Participated in the NFL Cayman Challenge in May 2004, where current NFL players competed in various events such as kayaking, snorkeling and deep sea fishing.
- ♦ Worked as a caddy at LaGorce Country Club in Miami Beach, FL, during the summer months while in college.
- ♦ College roommate of Arizona Cardinals running back Edgerrin James, the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Year, in 1999.
- ♦ Uncle, Kenneth Banks, played football at Texas Tech, while his late cousin, Jarrod Banks, played basketball for Baylor.
- ♦ Hobbies include billiards, fishing, bowling and basketball.
- ♦Born in Riverside, CA and lives in Miami.

THOMAS JONES

5-10 / 212 / Virginia 31 years old (as of opening weekend) Big Stone Gap, VA/Powell Valley HS EXPERIENCE: NFL: 10 / Jets: 3rd ACQUIRED: Trade (CHI, 3/6/07) Entered NFL: ARI D1 (7), 2000 NFL Draft

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ♦ Ranks 42nd all-time with 7,815 career rushing yards (49th back to surpass 7,000 yards) on 1,949 carries (4.0) with 48 rushing touchdowns...1,800 career receiving yards on 279 catches (6.5) with three receiving touchdowns, all three coming with the Jets.
- ♦ Second in NFL in rushing over last four seasons with 4,976 yards to LaDainian Tomlinson (5,861 yards).
- ♦ His 1,312 rushing yards in 2008 were the fifth-highest total in Jets history and the second highest in his career (1,335) yards in 2005), as he became the first Jets player to lead at least the AFC in rushing since RB Curtis Martin led the NFL in 2004 with 1,697 yards.
- ♦ Named to his first Pro Bowl in 2008, becoming one of only three running backs in NFL history to be named to his first Pro Bowl over age 30.
- Set Jets franchise records in 2008 with 15 total touchdowns, 13 rushing touchdowns and eight consecutive games with a touchdown...Jets are 10-2 in games Jones has scored.
- ♦ The fifth Jets running back to post a 1.000-vard rushing season (13th and 14th 1000-yard seasons in franchise history) and has now recorded four consecutive 1,000yard rushing seasons.
- ♦ Posted the first receiving touchdown in his career vs. KC, 12/30/07, on a 15-yard shovel pass from Kellen Clemens.
- ♦ Owns 25 career 100-yard rushing games in the regular season (two in postseason), including nine in two seasons with the Jets.
- ♦ Named the AFC Offensive Player of the Month for Nov. 2008 when he led the AFC in rushing yards (556, 111.2 yards per game) and rushing touchdowns (7) as the Jets posted a 4-1 record, including three road wins at BUF, NE and TEN.
- ♦ Posted a career-high 1,335 rushing yards in 2005 to become the second CHI player (Walter Payton) to eclipse the 1,300 yard plateau.

MONDAY NIGHT MIRACLE

he Meadowlands, NJ - With both teams 5-1 and battling for AFC East position, the Monday Night showdown between the Jets and Dolphins was set up to be a special game, another classic New York-Miami showdown. Little did anyone know what the next four hours would hold.

For Jets' fans, it began as a nightmare. Down 17-0 after one quarter, the Jets were outgained, 207-9. Trailing 23-7 at the half, the heralded Jets' defense had surrendered 299 yards of offense. The Jets' three third quarter drives featured a threeand-out, an INT and a failed fourth down. Nothing indicated a comeback. When Miami's Lamar Smith scored with 12 seconds left in the quarter to give the Dolphins a 30-7 lead. the partisan Jets' crowd started heading for the parking lots and no one batted an eye. As the fourth quarter began, Vinny Testaverde completed a four play, 75-yard drive with a 30-yard strike to Laveranues Coles--Coles' first career TD reception. The Jets' two-point conversion attempt failed, and with 13:49 on the clock, the scoreboard read 30-13.

Four minutes later, Testaverde hit Jermaine Wiggins on a one-yard TD and now it was 30-20 with 9:51 remaining. Next, John Hall's field goal with 5:43 to go cut Miami's lead to a touchdown, 30-23, and now the Jets' fans were coming back from the parking lots and the national television audience was re-engaged. The comeback was seemingly complete when Testaverde found Wayne Chrebet for a 24-yard TD and with 3:55 left. The score now tied. 30-30.

But the Dolphins' Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff into Jets' territory and on the next play, Jay Fiedler found Leslie Shepherd for a 46-yard touchdown and the Jets' fans were back to being stunned.

Testaverde wasn't done, though. He drove the Jets down to the four yard-line, where he faced a fourth-and-one at the two minute warning. A two-yarder to Richie Anderson kept hope alive for the Jets, and after a loss of one yard, the QB capped the nine-play, 57-yard drive with a three-yard flip to Jumbo Elliott, who had reported as a tackle-eligible, Elliott bobbled the ball before bringing it in safely for the touchdown. Now the score was tied at 37, and the teams headed to overtime.

New York's Marcus Coleman thwarted the Dolphins' first possession by picking off Jay Fiedler's pass, only to be stripped of the ball, which was recovered by the Dolphins' Orande Gadsden. But five plays later, Coleman picked off Fiedler again. Testaverde then topped off the night by driving the Jets into field goal range, where Hall drove it home from 40 yards to complete the Monday Night Miracle.

In the fourth quarter, the Jets scored 30 points, had 20 first downs. Testaverde had 235 yards and four TD passes in the fourth quarter after just 102 yards and three INT in the first three quarters. He finished the game 36 of 59 for 378 yards, with five TD and three INT.

Limited Cowboys' WR Terrell Owens to two catches for 37 yards, and notched an interception (Tony Romo) that led to the game's only touchdown in a 10-6 win...His performance earned him NFC Defensive Play of the Week honors. (11/4 vs. DAL)... Picked off a QB Tony Romo pass and added two tackles.

2006 (PHI) Saw action in 13 games, all starts...Earned NFC Pro Bowl and Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC Team honors... Hauled in a career-high six interceptions, which ranked seventh in the NFL and was the most by an Eagle since Troy Vincent nabbed seven in 1999...Ranked second in the NFL in interception return yards (157) behind Denver's Champ Bailey (162). POSTSEASON: (1/7 vs. NYG) Started and recorded four tackles and one forced fumble. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

(12/25 at DAL)...Registered five tackles, one interception and two passes defensed. (12/4 vs. CAR)...Intercepted Panthers' QB Jake Delhomme in the end zone with seconds remaining to seal the Eagles 27-24 victory. (11/26 at IND)...Finished with one tackle and one interception. (10/15 at NO)...Picked off Saints QB Drew Brees and returned it 29 yards to move him into fourth place on the Eagles all-time interception return yardage list. (10/8 vs. DAL)...Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes (QB Drew Bledsoe), returning one 102-yards for a touchdown with 0:16 remaining in a thrilling 38-24 victory... It was the longest individual interception return in Eagles history, the longest of his career, and the longest in the NFL in 2006, making him the first player in NFL history to record more than one in a career.

2005 (PHI) Played and started in 10 games, leading PHI with three interceptions through the first 10 games before an injury ended his season...Recorded 33 tackles, one sack, three interceptions, six passes defensed and one forced fumble. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (11/14 vs. DAL) Snagged an interception off of QB Drew Bledsoe in the second quarter, which led to an Eagles touchdown. (10/23 vs. SD) Picked off QB Drew Brees and returned it 33 yards. (10/9 at DAL) Popped the ball loose from DAL Keyshawn Johnson and into the hands of teammate Sheldon Brown, who returned the fumble 80 yards for a touchdown. (9/18 vs. SF) Had a sack and an interception (QB Tim Rattay)...First time in his career he notched both in the same game.

2004 (PHI) Earned a starting role on the NFC Pro Bowl team, his first appearance...Also named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Pro Football Weekly, and second-team All-Pro by Football Digest...Played and started in 15 games...Tied for third in the NFC (t-8th in NFL) and led the team with five interceptions... One of three players to return two interceptions for touchdowns during the season....His 172 interception return yards were the third-highest total in the League that year... Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors for October after posting 25 tackles, three interceptions, one sack and four passes defensed in five games...POSTSEASON: Started all three games, including Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville, and recorded 11 tackles and five passes defensed. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (11/15 at DAL)...Returned an interception 101-yards for a touchdown. (10/24 at CLE)...Posted a career high in tackles (11) and intercepted QB Jeff Garcia, outleaping WR Dennis Northcutt. (10/17 vs. CAR)... Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors...Posted his first two-interception game (QB Jake Delhomme), including a 64-yard return for his first-career touchdown...His other interception came in the end zone during the Panthers final drive of the game. (10/3 at CHI)...Registered his first sack when he brought down QB Jonathan Quinn on a blindside hit.

2003 (PHI) Played in all 16 games, making nine starts and recorded 55 tackles (39 solo), one interception, one forced fumble and a career-high 15 passes defensed. POSTSEASON: Saw action in both playoff games, recording one tackle. SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: (11/23 vs. NO)... Registered his first-career forced fumble, along with three tackles and one pass defensed. (11/2 at ATL)...Registered his first-career interception against QB Kurt Kittner and returned it 34 yards.

2002 (PHI) Played in 12 games and finished the season with eight tackles.

BEFORE THE NFL

- ♦ Two-time All-America selection during his three seasons at Florida...Started 22 games and allowed just one touchdown, while recording 87 tackles, 13 knockdowns and eight interceptions.
- ♦ Brought back 21 kickoffs for 472 yards (22.5 avg.) and 49 punts for 559 yards (11.4 avg.) and two touchdowns.
- ♦ In 2001, started every game and recorded 42 tackles, deflected six passes and intercepted two others in earning All-America honors...Consensus All-SEC selection also added 246 yards on 26 punt returns and 171 yards on seven kickoff returns (24.4 avg.).
- ♦ Became only the fourth sophomore in Florida history to receive All-America honors after leading the team with six interceptions for 179 yards and one touchdown.
- ♦ Was named the nation's top DB in 1998 and Jacksonville's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior at Raines HS... Recorded 18 interceptions during his junior and senior seasons.

OFF THE FIELD

- ♦ Full name: Lito Decorian Sheppard.
- ♦ Majored in sociology while at the University of Florida.
- ♦ Has his own website www.Lito26Sheppard.com.
- ♦ Wife, Nicole.
- ♦ Daughters, Reighan and Mya, and son, Terrell.
- ♦ Lists his grandfather, Lovell Sheppard, as having the largest influence on him.
- ♦ Passion for cars...His prized possession is his 1973 Chevy Caprice...Purchased a Ford F350 Harley Davidson Edition in 2008 after his children saw one that his friend owned and fell in love with it. Modified truck with an 8-inch lift and 37-by-13 inch tires to make it his very own "Mini-Monster" truck.
- ♦ In 2006, started the "Good Sheppard Foundation" to help guide disadvantaged and at-risk children into gaining a "can-do" attitude about education and the opportunities it creates.
- ♦ Sponsored a youth fitness camp in his hometown of Jacksonville in June 2008 through The Good Sheppard Foundation.
- ♦ In 2004, Lito and his family were devastated to learn that his cousin, Terrell, had fallen victim to a home invasion and was fatally shot in Jacksonville. The two were so close that Lito actually refers to him as his brother. Since Terrell's death, Lito has named his son after him and has had his name tattooed on his chest

DON'S BIGGEST DAYS

Thirty-nine years after his last 200-yard receiving gem, Titans' and Jets' Hall of Fame WR Don Maynard remains tied for fifth in NFL history for most 200-yard games in a career. In context for the franchise, Maynard has three of the Jets' five 200-yard receiving performances. Only Bake Turner, with 210 yards receiving vs. Houston (11/10/63) and Richard Caster, with 204 yards receiving vs. Baltimore (9/24/72), are members of Maynard's exclusive Jets' club.

His three dynamic performances came in a 22-game span that began in the Super Bowl season in 1968 with the opener at Kansas City, included his franchise-record 228-yard game in the the "Heidi Bowl" at Oakland, and concluded against the Oilers in the 1969 home opener that came six games into the season.

O'BRIEN TOPS MARINO - 9.21.86

he Meadowlands, NJ - It's been more than two decades since the Jets downed the Dolphins, 51-45 in overtime, and the numbers are still mind-boggling. Quarterbacks Ken O'Brien and Dan Marino combined to throw for 884 net yards passing, still an NFL record. Wesley Walker's four TD catches are still a Jets' record. Marino threw six TD passes, a mark he never again matched in his Hall of Fame career.

O'Brien (29-43-479 yards, 1 INT and 4 TD passes) culminated his career day with a pair of scoring drives. First, he led the Jets 80 yards in the last 1:04 of regulation, hitting Walker on a 21-yard TD pass as time expired to send the game to OT. Three plays after the Jets won the toss, O'Brien hooked up with Walker again on a 43-yard TD bomb to cap the victory.

Marino on the day: 30-50-448-2 INT-6 TD. Check out these receiving numbers: Walker 6-194-4 TD; Al Toon 7-111; Mark Clayton 8-174-1 TD; Mark Duper 7-154-2 TD.

NAMATH VS UNITAS - 9.24.72

emorial Stadium - MD. On a cold and cloudy September day in Baltimore, Joe Namath outdueled Johnny Unitas as the New York Jets defeated the Baltimore Colts, 44-34. Namath put up a team-record 496 yards and team-record six TD on just 15 of 28 passes while Unitas was 26 of 45 for 376 yards and two TD. Namath and Unitas set a combined NFL passing record with 872 yards between the two future Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

After falling behind 13-6 in the second quarter, Namath put the Jets in command with three TD passes in a span of 1:29 in the second quarter, surrounded by a Don McCauley 93-yard kickoff return. Namath's three scoring strikes went to three different receivers, John Riggins (67 yards), Don Maynard (28 yards) and Richard Caster (10 yards) and the Jets led 27-20 at halftime. Namath completed his record-setting day with a pair of long TD completions to Caster of 79 and 80 yards on back-to-back offensive plays in the fourth quarter, answering a Colts' touchdown each time.

Namath's 15 completions went to only four receivers (Ed Bell 7-197, Caster 6-204, Riggins 1-67, Maynard 1-28), each of whom caught at least one TD. On the day, the Jets were outgained by the Colts, 573-412, and ran only 54 offensive plays compared to Baltimore's 78.

MISSED FIELD GOAL RETURNS

he Jets Aaron Glenn's 104-yard return of a missed field goal at Indianapolis in 1998 was the longest in NFL history, but it has been surpassed four times in the last six seasons, most recently by the Chargers defensive back Antonio Cromartie. Cromartie made a leaping grab in the back of the end zone on a 57-yard field goal attempt by the Vikings' Ryan Longwell on the last play of the first half at Minnesota on Nov. 4, 2007 and returned it 109 yards for the touchdown. Cromartie's play was the longest in NFL history, surpassing the missed field goal returns by Nathan Vasher and Devin Hester (see below) and the 108-yard kickoff return by Ellis Hobbs of the Patriots vs. the Jets, Sept. 9, 2007.

Interestingly enough, the Jets held the AFL record for the longest field goal return when Marshall Starks returned a missed field goal 97 yards vs. Houston on Sept. 22, 1963.

GAME NOTES

The Jets' 56 points marks the second-most points scored in a single game in franchise history, trailing only the 62 scored, 11/17/85 vs. TB in a 62-28 victory...The 34 points scored by the Jets in the second quarter is a franchise record for points in any quarter, the previous team record for points in a quarter was 30, set on 10/23/00 vs. Miami...Both Dustin Keller and Chansi Stuckey made their first career NFL starts for the Jets...Brett Favre's six touchdown passes are a career high, and tie a Jets record by Joe Namath...This marked the 20th time in his career that he has thrown for four-or-more touchdown passes...Laveranues Coles set a career high with three touchdown receptions, making it the seventh time he has caught at least two touchdowns in a game...Jerricho Cotchery marked a career high with two touchdown catches, he now has 11 receiving touchdowns in his career...Darrelle Revis finished with two interceptions marking the first multiple interception game of his career, and the 32-yard interception return for a touchdown was the first of his career... He now has six career interceptions, and the three this year match his total from his rookie season... Kris Jenkins' blocked field goal in the first quarter was the fourth blocked kick of his career...David Bowens posted two sacks, his second multiple sack game of his career.

GAME NOTES

Eric Mangini's teams are now undefeated (3-0) in the game following the bye week...The Jets are 3-1 in the New York Titans throwback uniforms since introducing them during the 2007 season...The defense held CIN to 43 yards rushing and ARI to 42 yards rushing, the last time the Jets held teams in consecutive games to under 50 yards rushing was in 1993 against MIA and NE...Laveranues Coles and Jerricho Cotchery tied for the team lead in receptions with eight and are also tied for the team lead in receptions on the season (26)...Coles marked 587 receptions in his career, tying him with Marcus Allen for 53rd on the all-time list, passing former Jet Wayne Chrebet (580)... Thomas Jones scored three touchdowns for the first time in his career, which marked the eighth time in his career he had a multiple touchdown game...The 71.3 percent completion percentage is the highest for Brett Favre through the first five games of any season in his career...The Jets' five sacks tied for a season-high with six different players recording sacks... Eric Barton's first-quarter sack was the first of the season and marks 19.5 for his career...Hank Poteat's second quarter strip-sack was his first sack since 2005 and second of his career... Calvin Pace's strip-sack gives him 3.5 sacks for the season and 17.5 for his career...David Harris and Bryan Thomas combined for a fourth-quarter sack, giving Harris his first sack of the season while Thomas upped his team-leading total to 4.5 for 2008 and 22 for his career... Shaun Ellis' sack gave him four for the season and 57.5 for his career, which is fourth all-time for the Jets, in 129 regular season games, also fourth among Jets defensive linemen... Jesse Chatman made his first appearance as a Jet on the kickoff return team...Reggie Hodges made his Jets debut as the team's punter and holder.

GAME NOTES

The Jets 420 total net yards are the most by the Jets since the 441 yards gained at GB, 12/3/06...The Jets, who gained 418 net yards last week at OAK, recorded back-to-back games over 400 net offensive yards for the first time since 1998... Brett Favre's fourth-quarter comeback was the 41st of his career (second consecutive against KC) and first as a Jet ... Leon Washington's 18-yard catch-and-run in the first quarter was the first touchdown reception of his career, and his 60-yard touchdown run in the second guarter was the longest rush of his career, his second rushing touchdown of the season, ninth of his career and longest run by a Jet since 2002...Thomas Jones' third-quarter touchdown was the fourth of the season and 39th of his career, his 54 rushing yards gave him 7,035 yards for his career, making him the 49th running back to surpass 7,000 career rushing yards...Laveranues Coles' 15-yard reception with 1:00 to play was his fifth of the season and the 42nd of his career...Jerricho Cotchery finished with nine receptions for 102 yards, marking the eighth time he has surpassed 100 yards...Brad Smith's pass attempt was his first of the season and second of his career...Kerry Rhodes recorded a first-quarter sack of Tyler Thigpen, his first of the season... Shaun Ellis recorded his sixth sack of the season in seven games, totalling 59.5 total career sacks...Drew Coleman's second-quarter sack of Thigpen was his first of the season and second of his career...David Bowens now was three sacks on the season and 31.5 in his career...James Dearth has now appeared in 119 consecutive games, which ties him with Curtis Martin for the sixth-longest streak in Jets franchise history...Justin Miller and Robert Turner made their first appearances this season...Miller had one kickoff return for 22 yards and one special teams tackle.

GAME NOTES

The fourth-quarter 14-play, 65-yard drive that lasted 8:41 and culminated in a 31-yard field goal by Jay Feely was the longest scoring drive by time elapsed for the Jets this season...The Jets held the Bills to 30 yard rushing on 17 carries, the lowest rushing total they have allowed in a game since they allowed only 25 yards against HOU, 11/26/06... The Jets five sacks give them 29 on the season through eight games, which matches the Jets full-season total in 2007... Brett Favre recorded his 9,000th career pass attempt with the seventh attempt in the first quarter...Thomas Jones now has 7,104 yards rushing and has passed Charlie Garner(7,097 yards) for 48th place all-time in NFL history... Tony Richardson recorded his first rushing attempt as a Jet going for three yards, which gave the Jets a key first down with under four minutes left in the game...Abram Elam intercepted a Trent Edwards pass on the last play of the first quarter and ran it back 92 yards for a touchdown, recording his first career interception and touchdown... Elam's return is the longest by a Jet since 1999 and he is tied for the fourth-longest interception return for a touchdown in franchise history...Darrelle Revis recorded his first career sack in which he forced and recovered a fumble... Revis' interception in the fourth quarter in the end zone was his team-leading fourth pick of the season and ninth of his career...Kris Jenkins recorded 1.5 sacks on Edwards... David Bowens made his first career start of the season, his third start as a Jet and 18th of his 10-season career... James Ihedigbo made his first career appearance in the NFL when he played on the Jets return team on opening kickoff...Jason Trusnik played in his first game in 2008 since being activated from the PUP list, 11/1/08.

GAME NOTES

The Jets have now won five out of their last six games for the first time since the last six games of the 2006 season...The Jets 6-3 record after nine games is their best since 2004... The Jets 44-point margin of victory is the largest in franchise history, the previous record was 42 points, set in a 45-3 win against HOU, 9/18/88...The 40 points scored in one half is the second-most in franchise history, the record is 41, against TB, 11/17/85...The 40-point lead at halftime was tied for the third-largest lead in NFL history...Three points allowed by the Jets are the fewest since 12/31/06, a 23-3 win over OAK...The Jets led 17-0 after the first quarter, the largest first-quarter advantage in a home game in franchise history...With the touchdown on the opening drive, the Jets have scored on their first possession in the last four games... Calvin Pace scored on a 50-yard fumble return, the Jets fourth defensive touchdown of the season, the most in one season for the Jets since 2001 and the ninth time the Jets have scored four defensive touchdowns in a season, which is the franchise record...The Jets, with two sacks, total 31 on the season, passing the 29 sacks registered in 2007... Brett Favre's 112.5 rating was his third game as a Jet with a passer rating over 100... Thomas Jones' 149 vards rushing marked his 25th career 100-yard game...Jones' three rushing touchdowns gives him nine total this season, tying his career high set in 2005 with Chicago...Jones now leads the AFC in rushing with 750 yards on 160 carries (4.7)... Dustin Keller's 107 yards marks his career best and first 100-yard receiving game...Abram Elam recorded his first career sack and first career forced fumble, which resulted in Pace's 50-yard return for a touchdown...Kerry Rhodes' second-quarter interception was his first of the season and 11th of his career...Jay Feely's 55-yard field goal tied the record for the longest in Jets history.

GAME NOTES

The Jets have won seven-of-eight games for the first time since the end of the 1998 season...Brett Favre marked his first win as a starting quarterback at LP Field in Nashville, making it the 32nd NFL stadium in which he has been victorious, a new record for quarterbacks, surpassing Dan Marino (31)...The Jets nine-play, 76-yard touchdown drive on their opening possession of the game marked the sixth consecutive week the Jets have scored on their opening possession...Thomas Jones has now scored a touchdown in five consecutive games and the Jets are 9-0 in games Jones has scored a touchdown since he joined the Jets in 2007...Jones leads the AFC in rushing with 950 yards... Laveranues Coles scored his sixth touchdown of the season, 43rd of his career and 35th as a Jets player...Coles now was 614 receptions for 7,858 yards in his career and is 45th all-time in receptions...Leon Washington's 61yard touchdown was the longest rush by a Jet this year and longest since LaMont Jordan's 61-yard touchdown run at SD, 11/3/02...This was Washington's second consecutive game with two touchdowns and his third game with two touchdowns this season...Tony Richardson's 14-yard run in the second quarter was his longest rush since a 14-yard touchdown run for KC vs. DEN, 10/20/02...Jay Feely is now 20-for-24 on the season in field goals and has scored 91 points this season... Dustin Keller had three receptions on third down for first downs, along with five third-down receptions for first downs in the Jets last game at NE, 11/13...Abram Elam stripped Chris Johnson after an 11-yard rush, and the fumble was recovered by Bryan Thomas, which marked Elam's second forced fumble of the season and Thomas' first fumble recovery... Calvin Pace's sack of Kerry Collins gives him 5.0 on the season... Pace also stripped Collins of the ball, his third forced fumble of the season.

GAME NOTES

Brett Favre made his 265th consecutive regular season start, 287th including postseason...Favre is now 168-97 in the regular season...Thomas Jones surpassed 100 yards rushing for the fifth time this season, ninth time as a Jet and 27th time in his career for a career total of 7,591 rushing yards and 46 rushing touchdowns...With 8:21 remaining in the first quarter, Jones broke free and took off on the longest touchdown run of his career, 59 yards, which pushed him over 1,000 rushing yards for the fourth consecutive season... With 12:44 remaining in the first half, Jones rolled over DEN DL Kenny Peterson and kept his balance for a 29-yard touchdown run, his second of the day...Jones is now tied for second with three players for most rushing touchdowns for the Jets in a season with 11, just behind Curtis Martin with 12... Dustin Keller led the Jets with seven receptions for 77 yards, and has 27 receptions for 313 yards in the last four games, which is sixth in the NFL over that period... Tony Richardson has now blocked for five running backs who have compiled a combined total of seven 1,000-yard seasons, and he has done so in each of his last four seasons with four different running backs...Dwight Lowery picked off Jay Cutler in the end zone with 7:13 remaining in the third quarter for his first career interception...Lowery's pick led to a 30-yard field goal by Jay Feely.

GAME NOTES

The season sweep of the Bills is the first for the Jets since 2002...The Jets opened the game with a seven-play, 72-yard drive which resulted in a two-yard Thomas Jones touchdown run, marking the seventh time this season the Jets have scored on their opening drive... Jones' score set new Jets franchise records in total touchdowns in a season (15) and rushing touchdowns in a season (13)...The score also marked Jones' eighth straight game with a touchdown, also setting a new Jets franchise record...Brett Favre's 27-yard rush in the first quarter was his longest since his 35-yard run vs. TEN, 12/20/98 and marked the fourth-longest rush of his career... Leon Washington's 47-yard touchdown was his fifth rushing touchdown of the season and his eighth total touchdown this year... Washington has logged 10 plays this season of 40-or-more yards, which ties him with SEA's Josh Wilson for the NFL lead...Laveranues Coles and Jerricho Cotchery exceeded 60 receptions in the same season for the second time (2006 was the other season)...David Clowney made his NFL debut on the opening kickoff...Shaun Ellis' 11-yard fumble return for a touchdown off the Abram Elam strip-sack with 1:54 to go in the game was the Jets fifth defensive touchdown of the season, setting a new franchise record... The Jets defense allowed 119 net passing yards, the second-lowest total in the Eric Mangini era... Calvin Pace finished with two sacks of QB J.P. Losman, recording a career-high seven sacks on the season... Hank Poteat's fourth-quarter interception of Losman was his second of the season and fourth of his career... Poteat started for the first time this season as part of the nickel package which opened the game...C.J. Mosley recorded his first start of the season...Darrelle Revis' fourth quarter interception of Losman was his fifth of the season and eighth of his career...Kerry Rhodes' fourth-quarter interception was his second of the season and 12th of his career...Jay Feely now has 105 points this season, crossing the 100-point plateau for the fifth time in his career.

GAME NOTES

The Jets scored for the eighth time on their opening drive of 13 plays, 78 yards, which took 6:53 and resulted in a 20-yard Jay Feely field goal...That opening drive was the Jets 29th of more than five minutes and the field goal gave them a league-leading 120 points on those drives...Brett Favre started at quarterback for his 268th consecutive regular season game...Laveranues Coles now has 627 career receptions for 8,007 yards and is the 73rd receiver in NFL history to gain over 8,000 yards... Tony Richardson's 16-yard run was his longest run from scrimmage in seven seasons...Richardson finished with five carries for 34 yards, the most he has gained in a single game since the 2001 game vs. NYG when he had nine carries for 41 yards... Dwight Lowery was responsible for two forced fumbles, giving him five on the season to lead the Jets...Darrelle Revis recovered the first fumble, his second fumble recovery of the season, and Eric Smith recovered the second, recording his first career fumble recovery...The second takeaway was the Jets seventh in the red zone, which ties them for the NFL lead with GB, and fifth goal-to-go takeaway, which leads the NFL...The Jets 24 forced fumbles on defense is the most in the NFL...Feely has now converted his last 13 field goal attempts which ties Nick Lowery (1994) for the fifth-longest streak in Jets history... On the year, Feely is 23-of-27 on field goals.

GAME NOTES

Brett Favre has started his 269th consecutive regular season game, one behind DL Jim Marshall, who started 270 consecutive games for MIN, 1961-79...Favre's career record as a starter is 169-100 (.628)...Favre's 20 completions gave him 343, setting a new Jets single-season record for pass completions (Vinny Testaverde 328 in 2000), and his 40 attempts gave him 522 for the season, the second-highest, single-season total in Jets history behind Testaverde (590, 2000)...Thomas Jones (1,312 yards) is the first Jet to lead at least the AFC in rushing since Curtis Martin led the NFL in 2004 with 1,697 yards...Jones' 1,312 yards are the fifth-highest total in team history and second-highest in his career (1,335 yards in 2005)...His 15 touchdowns and 13 rushing touchdowns are new team records. He now has 7,815 career rushing yards, which is 42nd on the all-time list...Laveranues Coles 631 career receptions ties him for 41st on the all-time with Raymond Berry...His 88 yards gave him 8,095 for his career, passing former Jets great Art Powell (8,046) for 71st on the all-time list...Leon Washington recorded 20 touches for 181 combined yards...His 2008 total 2,332 combined yards set a new Jets single-season records. The record was held by Bruce Harper, who had 2,157 combined yards in 1985...Bryan Thomas' second quarter strip-sack of Chad Pennington gave him 5.5 sacks for the season and 23 for his career... Jason Trusnik's fumble recovery was the first of his career...Jay Feely (112 points) passed Mike Nugent (2007 - 110 points) for ninth place in Jets history for points scored in a single season.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

he newest reign in franchise history has begun under a man named Rex.

"Coming here to the New York Jets, where my father once coached and was part of the Super Bowl III staff, is fantastic," said Rex Ryan, referencing his dad, Buddy Ryan, upon being named the 15th full-time head coach of the Jets on Jan. 19, 2009. "I look around at the facilities and the people they have in place and see a first-class organization. I'm just proud to be part of it. "

"There is no doubt in my mind that Rex has the expertise and instincts to build on the foundation we have in place and take this franchise to the ranks of the NFL's elite," owner Woody Johnson said. "He brings an aggressive, physical brand of football that will captivate our fans and ignite their passion. I'm confident Rex is the right fit for us."

In the circle of history, it is only appropriate that Buddy's son, a ballboy for the 1968 Jets who triumphed in Super Bowl III, should now be orchestrating the Jets' return to the big dance. The seeds of Super Bowl victory were sown in 1959-60, when the New York Titans and the American Football League struggled to life. The kindest way to describe owner Harry Wismer's stewardship was that it was "fraught with controversy" before the bankrupt Titans were taken over by the league in Nov. 1962.

Four months later, the five-man syndicate headed by David A. "Sonny" Werblin bought the Titans, rechristened them the Jets and hired Weeb Ewbank as coach. They got their on-field pilot when quarterback Joe Namath signed his legendary $427,000 rookie contract the day after the 1965 Orange Bowl. He joined an offensive cast that included wide receivers Don Maynard and George Sauer, the one-two backfield punch of Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer, and a line anchored by perennial AFL All-Star tackle Winston Hill. The defense was built around linebackers Larry Grantham and Al Atkinson and ends Gerry Philbin and Verlon Biggs.

And they took off on a flight plan that in 1969 landed Namath at the Miami Touchdown Club, where he accepted an award and made The Guarantee that the Jets in three days would defeat the heavily-favored Baltimore Colts.

"When I look back at that period now," Namath reflected decades later, "I realize not only was I a very confident young man, I was also very angry. It was more or less anger and frustration stemming from how everybody was putting the team and the league down that led me to make that guarantee."

Raspberries morphed into respect after the Jets turned five takeaways into a 16-0 lead en route to rocking the football world with their 16-7 win over the Colts at the Orange Bowl on Jan. 12, 1969.

The Jets hosted a playoff game at Shea Stadium in 1969 (a wind-marred 13-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs) and made television history, taking on the Browns on opening night in 1970 when the NFL and ABC first unveiled "Monday Night Football."

The teams of the early Eighties were led by "the New York Sack Exchange," the front four of Joe Klecko, Mark Gastineau, Marty Lyons and Abdul Salaam that piled up QB sacks at a blistering pace. "It always feels good when you feel appreciated," Lyons has said, "and that was reflected in the way we played. We didn't want to disappoint ourselves or our teammates."

That group guided the Jets to the 1981 Playoffs, a home Wild Card affair that began badly as Buffalo opened a 24-0 lead and ended heartbreakingly at the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds left as Richard Todd's interception sealed their 31-27 loss.

Then Todd, tailback Freeman McNeil and the Sack Exchange led the Jets to a 6-3 record in the strikeshortened 1982 season, and on to two road playoff victories. But the run ended in the Orange Bowl with a 14-0 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC Championship Game on Jan. 23, 1983.

There were playoff berths in 1985 and 1986. The latter appearance ended in a road defeat as the Jets of McNeil and Al Toon, with quarterbacks Ken O'Brien and Pat Ryan and coach Joe Walton, lost to the Browns in the second overtime, 23-20.

For the next decade, there was just one more postseason berth, in 1991, before Bill Parcells' 1998 team almost topped them all. Behind Vinny Testaverde and Curtis Martin, that team (12-4) featured 11 wins in 12 games, including a win at Buffalo that clinched the club's first AFC East title. Then came the first home playoff win since 1986, 34-24 over Jacksonville before a jubilant Meadowlands sellout crowd. But on a windy day at Denver's Mile High Stadium, the Jets 10-0 lead with 25-and-a-half minutes to play, John Elway's Broncos weren't to be denied, striding back for the 23-10 victory on Jan. 17, 1999.

Since Woody Johnson took ownership in the beginning of the millennium, the Jets have been to the postseason four times, three times under Herm Edwards and again in Eric Mangini's first season in 2006. The 2008 season, with another legendary quarterback, 39-year-old Brett Favre at the helm, featured an 8-3 start before finishing 9-7.

AFL KICKOFF: The American Football League's first organizational meeting was held in Chicago under the leadership of Lamar Hunt of Dallas. Charter franchises were granted to New York and Harry Wismer; Dallas, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Denver and Houston (Aug. 14).

FEELING A DRAFT: The AFL held its first draft, lasting 33 rounds, then 20 more rounds 10 days later. The New York Titans took Notre Dame QB George Izo with their first overall pick (Nov. 22).

DIVISIONS OF LABOR: The league established its divisional setup, grouping the Titans in the East with Boston, Buffalo, Houston and placing Dallas, Denver, Los Angeles and Oakland in the West.

BAUGH'S THE BOSS: Wismer hired Hall of Famer-to-be Sammy Baugh as the first coach of the New York Titans at $28,000 a year (Dec. 18).

FIRST IN THE FOLD: Flanker Don Maynard, a free agent after playing one season in the CFL, became the first Titans player to sign a contract.

HOME TURF: Wismer gained access to New York's Polo Grounds for Titans home games and established his team's colors of blue and gold.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS: The Titans make a successful debut at the Polo Grounds, beating Buffalo in the rain, 27-3, before a crowd of 10,250 (5,727 paid) (Sept. 11).

TOP HONOR: Guard Bob Mischak was named All-AFL, becoming the first all-league selection in franchise history.

TWO TO THE HOUSE: Dick Christy starred in the Titans' 35-28 home-opening win over Denver with 70- and 64-yard punt-return touchdowns, still tied for the most PR scores in a game in league history (Sept. 24).

ANOTHER ARM: Minnesota QB Sandy Stephens was the Titans' first pick of the 1962 draft (Dec. 2).

COACHING INTRIGUE: Wismer named Clyde "Bulldog" Turner to succeed Baugh as the Titans' head coach, then when Baugh protested, agreed to pay off his former coach's contract and keep Turner.

SIGNALCALLER SWAP: Lee Grosscup, the Giants' backup quarterback in 1960-61, was signed just before the season opener, got the starting nod and directed a 28-17 victory over Oakland (Sept. 9).

RED INK RISING: Wismer was unable to meet his payroll and the AFL assumed the costs of running the Titans until the end of the season (Nov. 8).

FIVE TAKE OVER: A five-man syndicate — David A. "Sonny" Werblin, Townsend B. Martin, Leon Hess, Donald C. Lillis and Philip H. Iselin — purchased the New York franchise for $1 million (March 28).

DAY OF CHANGE: Werblin and the new owners changed the franchise's name from Titans to Jets. And the new owners named Weeb Ewbank, released by the Baltimore Colts, as the new coach and general manager of the team (April 15).

JETS

On April 15, Werblin, the club's president and CEO, renamed the team the Jets. The reasons were twofold. At the time, the United States was entering the "Space" or "Jet" age. Commercial airlines were filling the air and soon there would be men walking on the moon. Also the Jets' new venue, Shea Stadium, would be located in Flushing Meadows, between LaGuardia and Idlewild (later renamed Kennedy) airports. Hence, the name New York Jets.

HAPPY CAMPERS: The Jets moved to Peekskill (N.Y.) Military Academy for their first training camp.

GRAND REOPENING: The Patriots prevailed, 38-14, in the rechristened Jets' season opener at Boston College (Sept. 8).

HOME SWEET HOME: Rookie Marsh Starks had a 97-yard touchdown return of a missed field goal and Mark Smolinski's TD run completed the fourth-quarter comeback to defeat the Houston Oilers, 24-17, in the Jets' first home opener (Sept. 22).

SNELL SELECTED: Ohio State FB Matt Snell was chosen as the Jets' No. 1 draft choice. Snell, also drafted by the NFL's Giants, became the first No. 1 pick to sign with the Jets/Titans (Nov. 30).

K.C. MASTERPIECE: The Jets recorded the first shutout in club history with a 17–0 blanking of the Chiefs at the Polo Grounds (Dec. 1).

1964

BIG TRADE: The Jets and Denver Broncos completed a nineplayer deal. The Jets sent Dick Guesman, Ed Cooke, Charlie Janerette, Jim Price and Sid Fournet to Denver for Gene Prebola, Wahoo McDaniel, Gordy Holtz and Bob Zeman (January).

BIG MONEY: The AFL and NBC announced a five-year, $36 million TV contract starting with the 1965 season (Jan. 29).

NEW HOME: The Jets officially moved into Shea Stadium with a season-opening 30-6 thumping of the Broncos. Jets TE Gene Heeter scored the first Shea TD on a 16-yard pass from Dick Wood (Sept. 12).

STANDING ROOM ONLY: The Jets, playing before their first Shea sellout, disappointed the crowd of 61,929 in a 20-7 loss to the Buffalo Bills (Nov. 8).

BIG DEALS: The Jets traded rights to QB Jerry Rhome, their 25th-round draft pick, to Houston for a first-round choice, with which they selected Alabama QB Joe Namath (Nov. 28).

MATT-INEE IDOL: Snell, after rushing for 948 yards and catching 56 passes for 393 yards more, was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year (Dec. 17).

1965

JOE'S BIG BUCKS: The day after the Orange Bowl, Joe Namath signed a Jets contract for a then pro football record amount reported to be $427,000 (Jan. 2).

HUARTE ABOARD: Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte of Notre Dame signed a contract worth about $200,000, adding more than $600,000 worth of QB talent to the Jets roster in a week (Jan. 9).

WOUNDED KNEE: Namath, 23 days after signing his contract, underwent surgery in New York's Lenox Hill Hospital to repair right knee cartilage and ligament damage (Jan. 25).

JOE UNVEILED: Namath played in his first game situation as a pro as the Jets' rookies beat the Boston Patriots' rookies in Lowell, Mass. (July 28).

MORE JOE: After sitting for the season opener, Namath made his pro debut in the second quarter vs. Kansas City (Sept. 18), made his first start (19-for-40, 287 yards, two TDs) in a 33-21 loss at Buffalo (Sept. 26), and got his first starting victory (10-for-25, 180 yards, two TDs) in a 30-20 win over the Patriots at Fenway Park (Nov. 14).

AND FINALLY...: Namath was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year after completing 164 of 340 passes for 2,220 yards, 18 TDs and 15 interceptions.

SEEING STARS: With Joe Namath at the offensive helm and earning the game's MVP award, the AFL All-Stars beat Buffalo, 30-19 (Jan. 15).

EXPAND, CONTRACT: The Jets Iost Wahoo McDaniel, Willie West, Mike Hudock and LaVerne Torczon to the Miami Dolphins in the expansion draft (Jan. 16).

COME TOGETHER: Representatives of the AFL and NFL agreed to merge and play a world championship game following the 1966 season (June 8).

SPOILERS: The Jets closed their otherwise disappointing 6-6-2 season at Shea by whipping Boston, 38-28, to cost the Patriots the Eastern Division title and a berth in the AFL Championship game (Dec. 17).

CRUSHING BLOW: RB Emerson Boozer was lost for the season after tearing knee ligaments during a 42-18 loss to the Chiefs at Kansas City. Boozer was challenging the pro touchdown record with 10 rushing TD and three receiving scores when he got hurt (Nov. 5).

WINNERS AT LAST: The Jets held off the Patriots, 29-24, at Boston to improve to 7-2-1 with four games left and clinch the first winning season in franchise history (Nov. 19).

400 CLUB: Joe Namath's 415-yard passing game in a 29-7 home win over the Dolphins made him the first QB in club history to throw for 400 yards in a game (Oct. 1).

4,000 CLUB: Namath's 343 yards in a season-ending 42-31 victory over the Chargers in San Diego on Christmas Eve gave him 4,007 yards for the season, making him the first QB in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in a season (Dec. 24).

CHANGE AT THE TOP: Ownership partners Don Lillis, Leon Hess, Townsend Martin and Phil Iselin bought out Sonny Werblin, with Lillis assuming the club's presidency (May 21). Lillis died (July 23). Iselin was appointed president and Mrs. Helen Springborn, Lillis' daughter, joined the board of directors (Aug. 6).

CAMP RELOCATION: The Jets relocated their training camp to Hofstra University on Long Island in Hempstead, N.Y. STORYBOOK TALE: The movie "Heidi" became a footnote in Jets and NFL history when NBC didn't show the final 50 seconds of the Jets-Raiders game, in which the Jets had just taken a 32-29 lead with 1:05 to play, to allow the children's special to begin on time. Oakland scored two TD in the last 42 seconds to win, 43-32 (Nov. 17).

ALL-PRO PARADE: Eleven Jets were named to the AFL's All-Star squad, the most postseason honorees in franchise history. CHAMPS AT LAST: The Jets defeated Oakland, 27-23, for their first AFL championship before 62,627 at Shea Stadium. Joe Namath passed for three TD, including the game-winner to Don Maynard (Dec. 29).

1969

SUPER BOWL III: The Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl, pounding out a 16-7 victory over the NFL's heavily favored Baltimore Colts at Miami's Orange Bowl. Joe Namath (17-for-28, 206 yards), who "guaranteed" the victory three days earlier, was named Super Bowl MVP.

NEWYORKJETS.COM

Weeb Ewbank became the first coach to win world titles representing both leagues (Jan. 12).

NEW NEIGHBORS: Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh join the AFL clubs to complete the merger of the AFL and NFL. The Jets are placed in the new American Conference East with Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo and Miami (May 17).

NOT THE RETIRING TYPE: Namath announced his retirement from pro football in a dispute with the NFL over his ownership of a Manhattan bar, Bachelors III (June 6). Six weeks later, he announced the sale of Bachelors III and came out of retirement (July 18).

ALL-STAR FIRST: The Jets, the first AFL team to play in the Chicago preseason all-star game, defeated the College All-Stars, 26-24 (Aug. 1).

CROSSTOWN RIVALS: In a preseason game that had the feel of a regular-season rivalry, the Jets beat Giants, 37-14, at the Yale Bowl in the first meeting between New York's pro football teams. Namath threw three TD passes and Mike Battle returned a punt 86 yards for a score (Aug. 17).

WHAT A KICK: Steve O'Neal launched a 98-yard punt in the milehigh air of Denver during the Jets' 21-19 loss to the Broncos. The kick still stands as an NFL record for longest punt (Sept. 21).

ANOTHER CROWN: The Jets defeated the Oilers, 34-26, in the Astrodome to improve to 9-4 and clinch their second consecutive Eastern Division title (Dec. 6).

WINDED: Kansas City took its next step toward the Super Bowl by beating the Jets, 13-6, in the gusts of Shea Stadium in an AFL interdivisional playoff game (Dec. 20).

ALL-TIME BEST: Weeb Ewbank was named the all-time AFL coach and Namath, Don Maynard and Gerry Philbin were chosen to the league's all-time first team as selected by the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

STRIKE ONE: The NFLPA strike left the Jets with only rookies on hand as full training camp was set to open (July 19). Veterans reported to camp after missing three weeks due to the strike (Aug. 3).

MONDAY, MONDAY: The Jets opened the season with a 31-21 loss to their new AFC rivals, the Browns, in Cleveland in ABC's inaugural Monday Night Football telecast (Sept. 21). NEXT BAD BREAK: In the first meeting between the Jets and Colts since Super Bowl III, Joe Namath fractured his right wrist. He completed the game but then was sidelined for the rest of the season (Oct. 18).

NEW YORK, NEW YORK: The Jets and Giants met in the first regular-season game between the rivals, with the Giants coming back from a 10-3 third-quarter deficit for a 22-10 victory at soldout Shea Stadium (Nov. 1).

SHORT STAY: All-Pro WR George Sauer announced his retirement after only six seasons of teaming up with Don Maynard and Joe Namath in the Jets' potent passing attack (April 16).

BIGGS BEGS OUT: Weeb Ewbank had a player exercise his option for the first time as DE Verlon Biggs signed with Washington, with the Redskins sending two draft choices to the Jets (June 10).

OH, JOE: Namath underwent surgery on his left knee after being hurt trying to make a tackle on a fumble return in the preseason opener against Detroit in Tampa (Aug. 7). After a streak of 19 regular-season games on the sideline, Namath returned in the second guarter vs. San Francisco and passed for 358 yards and three TDs in a 24-21 loss to the 49ers (Nov. 28).

DUEL FOR THE AGES: Joe Namath had the finest passing day of his vaunted career, completing 15 of 28 for 496 yards and six touchdowns as the Jets outlasted the Colts and Johnny Unitas, 44-34, in Baltimore. The teams combined for 872 passing yards, then an NFL record (Sept. 24).

ON A RAMPAGE: The Jets set a club record that still stands of 333 rushing vards in their 41-13 steamrolling of the Patriots in Foxboro. John Riggins (168) and Emerson Boozer (150) became the first and only RB tandem in franchise history to both rush for 150 yards in a game (Oct. 15).

MAYNARD MARK: Don Maynard became pro football's all-time receiving leader with his 632nd career catch in the fourth guarter of a 24-16 Monday night loss at Oakland that eliminated the Jets from the playoffs (Dec. 11).

HIRING A WINNER: Charley Winner, former head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals, was hired as an assistant coach under Weeb Ewbank and was named to succeed Ewbank as Jets head coach for the 1974 season (Feb. 1).

EVICTION NOTICE: Due to the Mets' presence in the World Series, the Jets were forced to play their first six games on the road. That included moving a home game against the Steelers to Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium, leaving the Jets with only six home games for the season.

SAD AND SWEET: Ewbank coached his last game after 11 years as the Jets' football boss, but his departure was overshadowed by O.J. Simpson in the Buffalo Bills' 34-14 rout at Shea. Simpson's 200-yard rushing game gave him 2,003 yards for the year, making him the first player in NFL history to run for 2,000 yards in a season (Dec. 16).

STRIKE TWO: The Jets opened training camp with 31 rookies and one veteran as another NFLPA strike began (July 9). Playing with a team composed mainly of rookies, the Jets defeated Denver, 41-19, in the preseason opener (Aug. 3).

COMPLETING THE MOVE: The Jets' new training facility opened at Hofstra University. The team first trained on the Hempstead, NY campus in 1968 (Sept. 3).

YALE LOCK: The Jets snapped the slump of their 1-7 start by posting their first regular-season win over their city rivals, the Giants, by 26-20 in overtime at the Yale Bowl. Joe Namath tied the score with a bootleg TD and won it on a 6-yard TD pass to Emerson Boozer (Nov. 10).

WEEB BOWS OUT: Weeb Ewbank announced his retirement as vice president of the Jets, effective at the end of the season (Nov. 12).

VICTORY BINGE: The Jets closed out the season with six consecutive victories to finish 7-7. In the streak were home upsets of playoff-bound Miami and Buffalo.

1975

DISHING THE PICK: The Jets traded their first-round draft pick, 12th overall, to New Orleans for DE Billy Newsome (Jan. 28). NEW LEADER: Al Ward, vice president of the Dallas Cowboys, was named Jets general manager to succeed Weeb Ewbank, who had retired (Feb. 13).

JOE WON'T GO: Joe Namath turned down a reported multimillion-dollar World Football League contract to sign a two-year contract with Jets (July 30).

STRIKE THREE: The final preseason game between the Jets and New England was canceled when the Patriots' players went on strike (Sept. 14). The Jets' players voted to support the strike and walked out of camp the week of their season opener at Buffalo (Sept. 16). The strike was settled and the Jets returned (Sept. 18).

VISITOR FROM THE EAST: Japan's Emperor Hirohito attended the Jets' home opener, a 36-7 romp over the Patriots at Shea Stadium (Oct. 5).

FIRING A WINNER: Charley Winner was dismissed as head coach after the Jets lost six games in a row and were in the AFC East cellar with a 2-7 record. Offensive coordinator Ken Shipp was named interim head coach (Nov. 19).

A GRAND BACK: John Riggins finished the Jets phase of his Hall of Fame career by becoming the first back in franchise history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Riggins' fifth consecutive 100-yard game, for 121 yards against the Cowboys, gave him 1,005 for the season (Dec. 21).

1976

HOLTZ ARRIVES: Lou Holtz, who had a successful four years at North Carolina State, signed a five-year contract to become the Jets' head coach (Feb. 10).

DRAFT DÉJÀ VU: Eleven years after drafting Joe Namath, the Jets tabbed another Alabama QB in Richard Todd with their first-round selection (April 8).

ISELIN ILLNESS: President Phil Iselin, who led the Jets for eight years, suffered cardiac arrest while attending the team's game at Denver (Sept. 19). Three months later, Iselin suffered a fatal heart attack while at his office (Dec. 28).

HOLTZ DEPARTS: Holtz, deciding he wasn't right for the pros, resigned as Jets head coach with one game to go and returned to college coaching. Mike Holovak was named interim coach for the season finale vs. Cincinnati (Dec. 9).

JOE'S LAST STAND: Namath played in what was to be his final game as a Jet in a 42-3 loss to the Bengals (Dec. 12).

WALT'S TIME: Veteran defensive coach Walt Michaels signed a three-year contract to become Jets head coach. Also, Leon Hess was named acting president (Jan. 5).

WAIVE GOODBYE: Joe Namath, who wore No. 12 and was a symbol of the Jets for 12 years, was granted his freedom as he was placed on waivers when a special trade attempt with Los Angeles was unsuccessful (April 1-April 12). A month later, he signed as a free agent with Rams (May 12).

SHEA HEY: After a two-month court struggle, the Jets were guaranteed two September games and two October games for each of the remaining six years of the Jets' Shea Stadium lease with New York City beginning in 1978. State Supreme Court Justice Harold Baer also allowed the Jets to play two preseason games plus their 1977 home opener in the Meadowlands (May 26).

KENSIL ASCENDS: Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL since 1968, was named president and chief operating officer of the Jets. Hess, who served as acting president, became chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters (June 6).

WARD RESIGNS: Al Ward, Jets general manager since 1975, resigned (Dec. 30). He became assistant to the president of the AFC (April 1978).

FAME-OUS WEEB: Weeb Ewbank was selected to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jan. 23).

JOE HANGS 'EM UP: Joe Namath announced his retirement from football.

GREEN CHANGES: For the first time since 1963, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team also adopted a new logo and changed the helmet to green (Feb. 27).

MICHAELS HONORED: Walt Michaels, who kept the youngest team in the NFL in playoff contention for 15 games, was named AFC Coach of the Year by UPI and by the Pro Football Writers of America.

MNF DISTINCTION: The Jets defeated the Vikings, 14-7, at Shea Stadium in the first Monday Night Football telecast to originate from the New York City area (Oct. 15).

CLOSING KICK: The Jets defeated AFC East rivals Baltimore (30-17), New England (27-26) and Miami (27-24) in the final three games of the year to finish 8-8.

MATT HEADS WEST: Backup QB Matt Robinson was traded to Denver for the Broncos' 1980 first- and second-round draft picks and QB Craig Penrose (Feb. 1).

ON THE LAM: The Jets send their two first-round picks, 13th and 20th overall, to San Francisco for the 49ers' second pick, which they used to selected Texas WR Johnny "Lam" Jones (April 29).

ON TARGET IN DEFEAT: Richard Todd completed 42 of 60 passes for 447 yards and three TD, breaking the NFL's record for completions in a game, and FB Clark Gaines caught 17 of those passes, setting a team record that still stands, but neither could salvage a 37-27 loss to the 49ers at Shea (Sept. 21).

OWNER SHIFT: Townsend Martin sold his 25 percent interest in the Jets to Leon Hess, who assumed 75 percent ownership of the club. Helen Dillon remained at 25 percent (March 2).

RETURN TO PLAYOFFS: With their 28-3 victory over Green Bay at Shea, the Jets finished 10-5-1 and clinched their first playoff berth since 1969 (Dec. 20).

SACKMASTERS: In that Packers pummeling, the Jets added nine more sacks to finish the season with 66, at the time one shy of the NFL record. Ends Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau, the leaders of the New York Sack Exchange, unofficially finished 1-2 in the NFL with 20.5 and 20 sacks respectively (Dec. 20).

BILLS COME DUE: After fighting back from a 24-0 deficit, the Jets' dreams died when Buffalo's Bill Simpson intercepted a Richard Todd pass on his 2 in the final 10 seconds to secure the Bills' 31-27 Wild-Card win at Shea (Dec. 27).

KNEED TO THE SIDE: DE Joe Klecko was lost for 14 weeks after suffering a ruptured patella tendon in his knee in the fourth quarter of a 31-7 win at New England (Sept. 19).

STRIKE FOUR: The NFLPA struck pro football following the second regular-season weekend (Sept. 21). The league and the players' association agreed on a five-year contract to end the 57-day strike and to play an abbreviated nine-game schedule with a 16-team playoff format for the 1982 season (Nov. 16). MUDDY END: The Jets won five of their last seven after the strike to finish 6-3 and reach the postseason for the second consecutive year. Then they posted road playoff wins at Cincinnati and the L.A. Raiders before falling to Miami, 14-0, in the Orange Bowl mud in the AFC title game.

FREEMAN'S THE ONE: Freeman McNeil became the first Jet to lead the NFL in rushing as he finished with 786 yards on 151 carries (5.2 avg.) in the strike-shortened nine-game '82 season (Jan. 2).

WALT TO WALTON: After six seasons as head coach Walt Michaels announced his retirement (Feb. 9). The next day offensive coordinator Joe Walton was named head coach and defensive coordinator Joe Gardi was promoted to assistant head coach (Feb. 10).

RELOCATION PROJECT: Citing Shea Stadium as "rundown, neglected and the NFL's poorest facility for athletes and spectators alike," the Jets announced plans to move to the Meadowlands for the 1984 season (Oct. 6). SHEA SWAN SONG: The Jets dropped a 34-7 decision to Pittsburgh in their final home game at Shea Stadium (Dec. 10).

HESS OWNS IT ALL: Leon Hess assumed full ownership of the team as Helen Dillon, a partner since 1968, sold her 25 percent interest in the club (Feb. 9).

TA-TA, TODD: The Jets concluded a week of trading by sending QB Richard Todd to New Orleans for a first-round pick, 15th overall (Feb. 18).

NEW DIGS: The Jets got off on the wrong foot in their new Meadowlands home with a nationally televised 23-17 Thursday night loss to Pittsburgh despite a 97-yard kickoff-return TD by Bobby Humphery (Sept. 6).

ON THE MARK: Mark Gastineau led the NFL in sacks for the second straight year, this time with a then league-record 22 sacks, which earned him his fourth out of five Pro Bowl appearances (Dec. 13).

Joe Namath became the franchise's first player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jan. 29) and be formally enshrined in Canton (Aug. 3).

NO. 12: In an emotional halftime ceremony televised nationally on Monday night, Namath came down from the ABC announcers' booth to have his uniform number retired. The Jets then completed their 23-7 win over Miami (Oct. 14).

POINTED RESPONSE: The Jets scored the most points in club history in trouncing Tampa Bay, 62-28. The Green & White racked up 581 yards of offense, with Ken O'Brien tossing five TD passes, three to TE Mickey Shuler (Nov. 17).

SUPERFLY: O'Brien and WR Wesley Walker connected for the longest scrimmage play in club history, a 96-yard touchdown pass that opened a 14-0 lead en route to the Jets' 27-7 win over the Bills at Buffalo (Dec. 8).

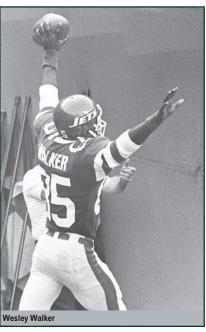

MEDIA GUIDE 2009

PLAYOFF CLINCHER: With a 37-10 home victory over Cleveland, the Jets finished 11-5 and clinched their third playoff spot in five years. O'Brien finished with a 96.2 passer rating to became the first Jets QB to lead the NFL in that category (Dec. 22).

DEATH BY TURNOVERS: The Jets gave the ball away four times, including on a fumbled kickoff that New England returned for a TD, in dropping a 26-14 Wild-Card decision to the Patriots, who went on to Super Bowl XX (Dec. 28).

AIR WARS: WR Wesley Walker set the club record for most touchdowns in a game with four TD receptions and Ken O'Brien's Jets (449) and Dan Marino's Dolphins (435) combined for 884 net passing yards — still the NFL record — in the Jets' 51-45 overtime thriller (Sept. 21).

HOT START: The Jets won their ninth straight game — still a franchise record — as two late touchdowns propelled them to a 31-16 home win over Indianapolis and a 10-1 record (Nov. 16).

HURT FINISH: But the Green & White lost their last five games and limped into the playoffs because of a rash of injuries to key players. Pro Bowl LB Lance Mehl was lost for the season with a knee injury (Oct. 26). DE Mark Gastineau suffered a knee injury in the Colts win that cost him the rest of the regular season. And NT Joe Klecko and OT Reggie McElroy both needed reconstructive surgery after knee injuries vs. Pittsburgh (Dec. 13).

I, TOON: Al Toon elevated himself among the NFL's wide receivers with 85 receptions, the most in a season in club history and second in the AFC. He was voted team MVP and selected for his first Pro Bowl (Dec. 17).

ERIE ENDING: In one of the most disappointing losses in their history, the Jets dropped a 23-20 decision to the Browns on Mark Moseley's 27-yard field goal 17:02 into overtime after holding a 20-10 lead at the two-minute warning in regulation (Jan. 3).

HALL OF A WIDEOUT: Don Maynard joined teammate Joe Namath and coach Weeb Ewbank as Jets to be voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jan. 27) and to become officially inducted into Canton (Aug. 8).

STRIKE FIVE: The NFLPA began a strike following the Jets' 43-24 romp over the Patriots on Monday Night Football ended the schedule for the second week of the season (Sept. 22).

COMEBACK PLAYERS: After Week 3 of the season was canceled, the next three games (Weeks 4-6) were played by teams of replacement players. The NFLPA sent its striking players back to work for the remainder of a 15-game regular season. In their first game back, the Jets fell to the Redskins at RFK Stadium, 17-16 (Oct. 25).

LUCKY 13: Flanked by fellow Jets Hall of Famers Ewbank and Namath, Maynard was presented with his Hall of Famering and his uniform number (13) was retired in halftime ceremonies of a 19-14 loss to Indianapolis (Nov. 1).

TRUCKED OUT: Joe Klecko, the only defensive player in NFL history to make the Pro Bowl at three different positions (DE, DT, NT), was waived upon failing his physical after the club recommended he retire (Feb. 8).

SPINNING TOP: Jim Kensil took medical retirement after serving 11 seasons as team president, and Steve Gutman, the club's corporate treasurer and administrative manager since 1977, was named as Kensil's successor (June 14).

LOST LINEBACKERS: The Jets said goodbye to two veteran LBs in training camp as former Pro Bowler Lance Mehl announced his retirement and Bob Crable injured his knee, underwent reconstructive surgery, was lost for the year and retired after the season (August).

GUSHER: The Jets scored 45 unanswered points in a 45-3 rout of the Oilers, with the 42-point margin of victory still the largest in franchise history.

MARK'S TIME: Citing personal reasons, DE Mark Gastineau left the team in midseason, announced his retirement, and was placed on reserve/retired (Oct. 21).

MORE TOON: WR AI Toon, with 93 catches, became the only Jet to lead the NFL in receptions since the 1970 merger and set the franchise record that still stands.

1989

PRIME-TIME HISTORY: The Jets lost at home to Oakland, 14-7, on Monday Night Football in the Raiders head-coaching debut of Art Shell, who became the first African-American head coach in the NFL's modern era (Oct. 9).

FUMBLE: Safety Erik McMillan equaled the NFL record for most fumble-return touchdowns in a season (2) when, two weeks after he had a 74-yard return TD at New Orleans, he had a 45-yard return score vs. San Francisco (Oct. 29).

WALTON ERA ENDS: Joe Walton's Jets finished 4-12 with a lifeless 37-0 home loss to Buffalo (Dec. 23), setting the stage for Steinberg, citing the need for the team to get off to a "fresh start," to announce Walton's dismissal and the start of a head-coaching search (Dec. 26).

COSLET'S THE COACH: GM Dick Steinberg concluded his search by naming Cincinnati offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet as the eighth full-time head coach in club history (Feb. 6).

UNIFORM CHANGE: For the fourth time in franchise history and third time in Jets annals, the team changed uniform designs. The Jets added black to accent their green and white colors and switched to green pants as part of their road uniforms (Sept. 9).

LIDLIFTER: The Jets registered their first win of the Steinberg-Coslet era with a 24-21 win over Cleveland in their home opener (Sept. 16).

RECORD RETURN: Rookie WR-KR Terance Mathis tied an NFL record, broken in 1994, when he returned a punt 98 yards for a touchdown in the 24-9 Meadowlands victory over Dallas (Nov. 4).

OLÉ, RAÚL: Raúl Allegre's 44-yard field goal as time expired sent the Jets' do-or-die game against Miami to overtime, where Allegre won it, 23-20, with a 30-yarder as the Jets, despite their 8-8 record, returned to the playoffs (Dec. 22).

PAT ON THE BACK: Kicker Pat Leahy retired on a down note after missing the regular-season finale vs. Miami and the playoff game. But Leahy finished his remarkable 18-year career, all as a Jet, with 1,470 points, which still stands as the franchise's career scoring mark.

DRY HOLE: In their first playoff game in five years, the Jets came up short on several key second-half plays and lost to the Oilers in the Astrodome, 17-10 (Dec. 29).

PASSING FANCY: After a strong showing in the Jets' 5-0 preseason, Browning Nagle took over the offensive controls and threw for 366 yards and a touchdown in the season-opening 20-17 loss at Atlanta. The yardage total was the second-highest at the time by a QB making his first NFL start (Sept. 6).

TOON OUT: After suffering a severe concussion in Game 9 at Denver, WR AI Toon announced his retirement. Toon left the game with a club-record 101-game pass-catching streak (Nov. 27).

HORRIFIC COLLISION: DE Dennis Byrd was partially paralyzed in a freak collision with teammate Scott Mersereau in the third quarter of the Jets' 23-7 Game 12 loss vs. Kansas City (Nov. 29). Byrd had spinal surgery at Lenox Hill Hospital (Dec. 3), then was moved to Mount Sinai Medical Center to begin his rehabilitation (Dec. 9).

SLUMPBUSTERS: Inspired by Byrd, the Jets defeated the AFC East-leading Bills, 24-17, in Buffalo. SS Brian Washington sealed the upset with a fourth-quarter interception of Jim Kelly that he returned for the winning TD (Dec. 6).

SIGNIFICANT HONOR: The Jets honored Byrd with the Most Inspirational Player Award, which the next year was renamed the Dennis Byrd Award and has been presented annually to the Jets' "Most Inspirational Player" as voted by the team.

BYRD WALKS: Dennis Byrd, with the aid of two canes, walked into a news conference at Mount Sinai Medical Center in New York to announce he would be leaving New York and returning home to Tulsa, Okla., to continue his rehab (Feb. 12). Byrd returned to the Meadowlands for the first time since his paralyzing accident, walking unaided onto the field to be honored at halftime ceremonies on opening day (Sept. 5).

LOTT SIGNS: GM Dick Steinberg made his first major signing under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement by adding nine-time Pro Bowl S Ronnie Lott to the Jets' roster (March 8).

BOOMER COMES HOME: Steinberg completed a trade with Cincinnati, bringing Pro Bowl QB and Long Island native Boomer Esiason to the Jets in exchange for a third-round draft pick (March 17).

O'BRIEN PACKS IT IN: QB Ken O'Brien, at the time second on the Jets' all-time passing list, was traded to Green Bay for a fifth-round draft pick (Apr. 5).

McNEIL RETIRES: RB Freeman McNeil, then the Jets' all-time leading rusher and 14th on the NFL's all-time list, retired. McNeil set an NFL record with at least a 4.0 yard average in each of his 12 seasons (Apr. 21).

DRAFT-DAY TRADE: The Jets traded the third selection in the draft to Phoenix in exchange for the Cardinals' fourth overall pick and Pro Bowl RB Johnny Johnson. Then the Jets drafted the player they had wanted, Florida State All-America LB Marvin Jones (Apr. 25).

SHULA DENIED: The Jets defeated Miami, 27-10, at the Meadowlands, forcing Dolphins coach Don Shula to wait another week before getting his 325th career victory and breaking George Halas' all-time record (Nov. 7).

SUPER REUNION: The members of the Jets' Super Bowl III team were reunited at the game against the Bengals to celebrate the 25th anniversary season of that historic victory. A weekend of activities was capped by the players being honored at halftime of the Jets' 17-12 victory over the Bengals while wearing "throwback" uniforms (Nov. 21).

CARROLL PROMOTED: Defensive coordinator Pete Carroll became the ninth full-time head coach in club history when he replaced Bruce Coslet, who compiled a 26-38 record in his four seasons at the helm (Jan. 7).

RECORD CROWD: The franchise's largest home crowd to date, 75,606, watched the Jets battle Miami for a share of first place in the AFC East. The Jets led, 24-6, in the third quarter before Dan Marino led a furious comeback, capped by the "fake spike" TD pass to Mark Ingram, for the Dolphins' 28-24 win (Nov. 27).

STEINBERG ILLNESS: The team announced before its season finale against the Houston Oilers that vice president/general manager Dick Steinberg had stomach cancer (Dec. 24). Steinberg died Sept. 25, 1995.

RICHIE'S BALL: Owner Leon Hess named Rich Kotite the 10th full-time head coach in franchise history after firing Pete Carroll after the Jets finished 6-10 in his only season as coach (Jan. 5).

MOORE, MOORE, MOORE: WR Rob Moore was traded to Arizona the night prior to the draft for RB Ronald Moore and the Cardinals' No. 1 choice (Apr. 21). As a result, the Jets held two first-round picks for the first time since 1984 (Russell Carter, Ron Faurot) and selected Penn State TE Kyle Brady and DE Hugh Douglas from Central State of Ohio (Apr. 22).

KOTITE'S FIRST: Kotite won his first game as Jets head coach with a 27-10 victory over the expansion Jacksonville Jaquars at the Meadowlands (Sept. 17).

WAYNE'S WORLD: WR Wayne Chrebet, the rookie FA from Hofstra, passed WR AI Toon the previous week, then became the Jets' all-time leading rookie receiver with four catches at New England in game 14, surpassing Matt Snell's 56-catch mark set in 1964 (Dec. 10).

THANK HUGH: Douglas was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year after leading all first-year players with a team-rookie-record 10 sacks.

NEIL LEADS PARADE: QB Neil O'Donnell, after leading Pittsburgh to four straight playoff appearances that included a berth in Super Bowl XXX, signed with the Jets as an unrestricted free agent (Feb. 28). O'Donnell was one of a long line of veteran free agents that included tackles Jumbo Elliott and David Williams, WR Jeff Graham and QB Frank Reich, to ioin the Jets in the off-season.

KEY DRAFT PICK: For the first time in club history, the Jets had the first overall pick of the NFL Draft and selected Southern Cal All-America WR Keyshawn Johnson (Apr. 20).

O'DONNELL'S WOES: O'Donnell suffered a shoulder injury in Game 6 against Oakland (Oct. 6). After sitting out six games, the QB was preparing to return for Game 13 vs. Houston when he tore a calf muscle during pregame warmups (Dec. 1), which would sideline him the rest of the season.

MURRELL GETS A THOU: With 103 rushing yards in a loss at Buffalo, RB Adrian Murrell reached 1,000 yards for the season (Nov. 24) and ultimately became only the third RB in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards for a one-win team.

KOTITE STEPS ASIDE: Two days before the season finale against Miami, Rich Kotite stepped aside as head coach (Dec. 20). The loss to the Dolphins dropped Kotite's two-season record to 4-28.

1997

A PRESIDENT PASSES: Former Jets president and NFL official Jim Kensil, who spent 12 seasons with the club from 1977-88 and helped guide the Jets to four playoff appearances before retiring, died (Jan. 16).

A LITTLE BUBBLY: The Jets upgraded their Hofstra University practice facilities with improved grass and turf fields and a new air-supported indoor practice bubble (July 2).

PARCELLS HIRING BEGINS NEW ERA

On Feb. 3, 1997, the Jets hired longtime Bill Parcells' assistant Bill Belichick as their head coach, naming Parcells as a consultant, all of which spurred an official complaint from New England, which claimed Parcells was still under contract to the Patriots. Leon Hess and Patriots owner Bob Kraft met with NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue in New York over the Parcells matter. After hours of negotiations, Tagliabue ruled Parcells could take over the Jets' football operations immediately. In return, the Jets would compensate the Patriots with four high draft picks over the next three years — third and fourth-round picks in 1997, their second-rounder in '98 and their first-rounder in '99. On Feb. 11, Parcells became the 11th full-time head coach in club history when he was introduced at a news conference at Weeb Ewbank Hall. Belichick was named assistant head coach/idefensive coordinator.

BOFFO DEBUT: Jets fans had to be delirious with the result of the first game of the Parcells era, a 41-3 rout of the Seahawks in Seattle in which Neil O'Donnell threw five touchdown passes and the Jets gained 434 yards.

A.G. ACHIEVEMENT: Aaron Glenn became the first cornerback in franchise history to be named a starter in a pro football all-star game when he was elected to the Pro Bowl (Dec. 11).

WINNERS AGAIN: The Jets didn't make it to the playoffs in Parcells' first year, but they posted their first winning season at 9-7 in nine years and at least played in a win-you're-in-lose-you're-out game, the regular-season finale at Detroit in which Barry Sanders and the Lions prevailed, 13-10 (Dec. 21).

THE NEXT NEW LOOK: The Green & White went back to the future with a "new" logo. Actually, the team returned to the uniform and logo worn at the Jets' inception in 1963 and during their Super Bowl III victory season (Feb. 3).

THEIR FAVORITE MARTIN: RB Curtis Martin officially became a New York Jet as the restricted free agent offer sheet he signed was not matched by the Patriots. The Jets did have to give up first and third-round picks, but coach Bill Parcells stated that Martin was worth it (March 25).

VINNY FROM ELMONT: QB Vinny Testaverde signed as a free agent and returned to Long Island, where he grew up, and fulfilled a lifetime dream of playing for the Jets. With the signing, QB Neil O'Donnell was released (June 24).

NEWYORKJETS.COM

DIVISION CONQUERED: The Jets defeated the Bills, 17-10, at Buffalo to clinch their first AFC East title. The tough road victory also assured them of a first-round bye in the playoffs (Dec. 19).

A DOZEN W'S: The Jets set a club season record for victories when they beat the New England Patriots, 31-10, in their regular-season finale for their 12th win (Dec. 27).

HOME FOR THE PLAYOFFS: The Jets, playing in their first home playoff game since 1986, won their first playoff game since that season when they defeated the Jacksonville Jaguars at the Meadowlands, 34-24 (Jan. 10).

FALLING SHORT AT MILE HIGH: The Jets took a 10-0 third-quarter lead but were unable to play the mistake-free football they had played all season in committing six turnovers and saw the Broncos come back for a 23-10 victory in Denver en route to defending their Super Bowl championship (Jan. 17). VINNY'S SPOILS: Vinny Testaverde, after going 12-1 as the regular-season starting QB, throwing a club-record 29 TD passes, being named team MVP, guiding the Jets to the AFC Championship Game and playing in the Pro Bowl, was signed to a three-year deal with a four-year option (March 1). HESS PASSES ON: Owner Leon Hess died at 85 due to complications from a blood disease (May 7). Hess started Hess Oil from his father's one truck heating oil delivery business during the depression and built it into a multibillion-dollar company. He was one of a group of five who originally bought the New York Titans out of bankruptcy in 1963, and he became the sole owner of the Jets in 1984.

JETS FOR SALE: The estate of Leon Hess announced the Jets would be sold according to wishes expressed in Hess' will (May 21).

ACHILLES HEEL: Testaverde ruptured his Achilles tendon in the second quarter of the season opener against New England and was lost for the season (Sept. 12). It was the first of numerous injuries as 15 Jets combined to miss 108 games and 89 starts due to injuries.

TUNA SWIMS UPSTAIRS: Bill Parcells announced a day after the 1999 season ended that "I'm not going to coach any more football games." Parcells stayed on as director of football operations, and by contract Bill Belichick took over for Parcells as head coach (Jan. 3).

ONE AND DONE I: A day after taking the job, Belichick stunned the Jets and the football world by resigning as head coach, citing the uncertainty of the new ownership situation. Jets president Steve Gutman said Belichick had a signed contract "that is clear, unambiguous and specific" (Jan. 4). WOODY'S TEAM: The estate of Leon Hess entered into an agreement to sell the New York Jets to Robert Wood Johnson IV for $635 million. The NFL voted unanimously to accept its finance committee's recommendation to approve the sale to Woody Johnson (Jan. 18).

GROH STEPS UP: The Jets elevated linebackers coach Al Groh to head coach, making him the 12th full-time head coach in the franchise's 40-year history (Jan. 24).

DEAL STRUCK: After NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and Federal Judge John W. Bissell ruled the Jets' contract with Belichick was valid, Parcells and New England owner Robert Kraft ended the "border war" between the teams and brokered compensation for Belichick to become head coach of the Patriots. The Jets received the Pats' first-round pick (16th overall) in the 2000 draft plus its fourth- and seventh-round picks in 2001. The Jets sent the Patriots a fifth-round pick in 2001 and a seventh-rounder in 2002 (Jan. 27).

KEY TRADE: The Jets sent WR Keyshawn Johnson, the first overall pick in the 1996 draft, to Tampa Bay for two first-round draft choices (Nos. 13 and 27) in the 2000 draft (April 12).

FOUR OF A KIND: The Jets became the first team ever to make four first-round selections in the NFL Draft, selecting DE Shaun Ellis at No. 12, DE John Abraham at No. 13, QB Chad Pennington at No. 18 and TE Anthony Becht at No. 27 (April 15).

CROSS TABBED TO HEAD JETS DEVELOPMENT: Jay Cross, president of business operations of the NBA's Miami Heat, was hired as president of Jets development (July 25).

TESTAVERDE RETURNS: QB Vinny Testaverde, who missed virtually all of 1999 with a ruptured Achilles' tendon, completed 23 of 44 for 261 yards and a TD in the Jets' season-opening 20-16 win at Green Bay, the first victory in their club-record 4-0 start (Sept. 3).

MIRACULOUS: The fourth comeback victory of the season was the most incredible in franchise history as the Jets rallied from a 30-7 deficit for a 40-37 overtime victory over the Miami Dolphins on Monday Night Football at the Meadowlands. The Green & White scored a club-record 30 fourth-quarter points en route to the biggest comeback in franchise history (Oct. 23).

MEDIA GUIDE 2009

ONE AND DONE II: After less than one year on the job, Groh accepted an offer to coach at his alma mater, the University of Virginia (Dec. 29).

2001

OVER AND OUT: Bill Parcells resigned from the Jets, ending his four-year reign (three as head coach) in charge of the football operations with a 39-26 regular-season record and 1-1 in the postseason (Jan. 9).

GIVE MY REGARDS: Two days after Parcells resigned, owner Woody Johnson chose Terry Bradway, the Kansas City Chiefs' vice president of player personnel, as his new general manager (Jan. 11).

HERM'S TURN: The Jets named Herman Edwards, Tampa Bay's assistant head coach and secondary coach, as their 13th full-time head coach. Edwards was tabbed after he, Maurice Carthon, Dom Capers and Ted Cottrell interviewed with Johnson and Bradway (Jan. 18).

JOB WELL DONE: Bill Hampton, the Jets' equipment manager for 37 seasons, retired and turned over the department's reins to his son, Clay (March 1).

TERROR HITS HOME: The second week of the season was postponed due to the terror attacks against the United States. The games were rescheduled to be played after the original last week of the regular season (Sept. 13).

HERM'S FIRST: Edwards earned his first NFL head-coaching win when the Jets defeated the Patriots, 10-3, at New England (Sept. 23).

EMOTIONAL MONDAY: The Jets honored the victims and heroes of the World Trade Center attacks in a stirring pregame ceremony before their 19-17 loss to the 49ers on Monday Night Football. Edwards presented the game ball the Jets players had presented to him after his first NFL head-coaching win the week before to New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani (Oct. 1).

HALL OF A KICK: John Hall's 53-yard field goal with 59 seconds left lifted the Jets over the Raiders, 24-22, in Oakland in the regular-season finale and into the playoffs. Herm Edwards thus became the first coach in club history to guide his team to the playoffs in his first year at the helm. The Jets' reward: a return trip to Oakland six days later for the AFC Wild Card Game (Jan. 6). RAIDERS' REVENGE: The Jets fell to Oakland in the rematch in a 38-24 Saturday night shootout that was the NFL's first-ever prime-time postseason game (Jan. 12).

MORTON'S OF BUFFALO: Chad Morton became the first player in NFL history to return kickoffs for TD in both regulation and overtime, with his 96-yard OT return lifting the Jets past the Bills at Buffalo, 37-31, on opening day (Sept. 8).

PACKING FOR PLAYOFFS: The Jets qualified for the playoffs and won the AFC East when their 42-17 thumping of the Green Bay Packers followed New England's 24-21 OT win over Miami. The Jets, Patriots and Dolphins all finished at 9-7, with the Green & White winning the division based on a better record in common-opponent games (9-5 to the Pats' and Dolphins' 8-6 records) (Dec. 29).

PENNINGTON IMPACT: The Green Bay game was QB Chad Pennington's 12th of the season and was his best of the regular season in terms of passer rating — his 17-for-24 accuracy for 196 yards and four TD gave him a 134.7 rating and lifted his season rating to 104.2, the best in club history and the top mark among qualifying NFL quarterbacks (Dec. 29).

COLTS CORRALED: The Jets rolled to the first postseason shutout in club history when they blanked Indianapolis, 41-0, in the AFC Wild Card Game. The 41-0 win tied the New York Giants (2002 NFC Championship vs. Minnesota) for the second-most points in a shutout victory in NFL history (Jan. 4).

TARGETING D-ROB: The Jets traded two first-round draft choices (Nos. 13 and 22) and a conditional pick to Chicago for the Bears' fourth overall pick (April 25). The next day they selected Kentucky DT Dewayne Robertson fourth overall. JOE'S NEW TITLE: The Jets announced that Hall of Fame QB Joe Namath would serve as the club's ambassador-at-large (June 25). EASTERN EXPOSURE: The Jets became New York's first pro football team to travel to Asia as they took on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the defending Super Bowl champions, in the American Bowl. The Bucs downed the Jets in the Tokyo Dome, 30-14, in the season's first preseason game (Aug. 2). CHAD'S CALAMITY: QB Chad Pennington suffered a fracture/dislocation of his left wrist while scrambling out of the pocket during the annual preseason game against the New York Giants (Aug. 23). He had surgery that night and was able to return to action 10 weeks after the operation in relief of Vinny Testaverde against the Eagles in Philadelphia (Oct. 26). THURSDAY KICKOFF: The Jets kicked off the NFL's regular season, opening the schedule with a 16-13 Thursday night loss to the Redskins at Washington (Sept. 4).

FIVE ALIVE: After a rare home opener, a win against the Bengals, the Jets reeled off four more wins to open the season 5-0 for the first time in franchise history. Included in the streak were wins at San Diego and Miami, then home over Buffalo and San Francisco (Oct. 17).

CHAD CUFFED: QB Chad Pennington suffered what turned out to be the first rotator cuff tear in his throwing shoulder when falling awkwardly at the end of scramble in the third quarter of the 22-17 loss at Buffalo (Nov. 7). Pennington missed three games before returning to lead a 29-7 win over Houston (Dec. 5), and he played through the playoffs before undergoing surgery (Feb. 8).

MAWAE-HAWAI'I VI: Kevin Mawae was selected to play in his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl. It was the second-longest all-star streak in club history behind OT Winston Hill, who played in seven straight, three AFL All-Star Games and four Pro Bowls, from 1967-73 (Dec. 29).

CURT BY A NOSE: RB Curtis Martin gained just enough in the regular-season finale at St. Louis, 153 yards on 28 carries, to edge Seattle's Shaun Alexander by a single yard

40 YEARS OF STARS: Green & White fans, after a season-long campaign to vote for their favorite players in the first four decades of Jets football, selected 28 players. The "NY-XL" team was honored at halftime of the 21-16 Saturday night loss to New England (Dec. 20) for the NFL's 2004 rushing title. Martin, with 1,697 yards, became just the second player in club history to capture the prestigious title, 23 years after Freeman McNeil (Jan. 2).

VAUNTED VILMA: LB Jonathan Vilma, the Jets' first-round draft choice, was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year (Jan. 7). WORKING OVERTIME: The Jets became the first NFL team to play three consecutive overtime games, including their regular-season-ending 32-29 loss in St. Louis (Jan. 2), their 20-17 Wild Card win at San Diego (Jan. 8) and their heartbreaking 20-17 Divisional Round loss at Pittsburgh (Jan. 15). CHAD CUFFED II: Chad Pennington suffered the second rotator cuff tear in his right shoulder in less than a year when his arm was yanked from behind as he was trying to pass against Jacksonville (Sept. 25). He then underwent arthroscopic surgery, his second shoulder operation in eight months (Oct. 6).

VINNY REDUX: Vinny Testaverde was signed as the emergency backup to Brooks Bollinger (Sept. 27) after Pennington and No. 2 QB Jay Fielder were injured vs. the Jaguars. Testaverde moved into the starting lineup and directed an inspirational 14-12 home win over Tampa Bay (Oct. 9) before losing his next three starts and handing the reins back to Bollinger.

END OF A TRADITION: The Jets, who played in ABC's first Monday Night Football telecast in 1970, played in the network's last in a 31-21 loss to New England at the Meadowlands (Dec. 26).

DEAL HERM OUT: Jets deal head coach Herm Edwards to Kansas City for the Chiefs' fourth-round draft choice. General manager Terry Bradway immediately began setting up interviews to find a successor (Jan. 6). ERIC ERA: Eric Mangini was hired as the team's 14th full-time head coach. Mangini, a Jets defensive assistant under Bill Parcells from 1997-99 became, at the time, the 15th-youngest head coach in league history, holding his introductory news conference two days before his 35th birthday (Jan. 17).

T, T00: Mike Tannenbaum is promoted to general manager by Woody Johnson as Terry Bradway steps back to focus exclusively on player personnel and the draft (Feb. 7).

ABE TRADED: The Jets completed a three-team trade with Atlanta and Denver that sent DE John Abraham, one of their first-round picks in 2000, to the Falcons for the 29th overall pick, which the Broncos traded to the Falcons (March 21).

BRICK AND NICK: The Jets begin rebuilding their offensive line through the draft by selecting tackle D'Brickashaw Ferguson with their fourth overall pick and center Nick Mangold with the 29th pick from the Abraham deal (April 29).

NO. 80 SAYS GOODBYE: Wayne Chrebet, one of the most popular players in franchise history, announced his retirement from football (June 2).

PATS ON THE BACK: After a 4-4 first half, the Jets opened the second half of the season with a 17-14 upset of the Patriots at Gillette Stadium, Mangini's "home office" for the previous four seasons (Nov. 12).

FANTASTIC FINISH: The Jets picked up speed with five wins in their last six games to gain the AFC's fifth seed in the playoffs. The victory that locked it up was the solid 23-3 home win over the Raiders on New Year's Eve that secured a 10-6 record and clinched the postseason berth (Dec. 31).

LYING IN WAIT: The Jets' second visit of the season to Gillette Stadium didn't go as well as the first in November as the Patriots pulled away for a 37-16 AFC Wild Card victory (Jan. 7). NEW BACK IN TOWN: The Jets announced the acquisition of the Bears' Thomas Jones after negotiating a contract extension with his agent and swapping second-round picks, their 37th overall for the Bears' 63rd (March 6).

TRADE WINDS: Mike Tannenbaum consummated two dramatic first-day draft trade-ups, moving 11 rungs to No. 14 overall in a trade with Carolina to select CB Darrelle Revis, then 16 slots in Round 2 to No. 47 in a trade with Green Bay to take LB David Harris (April 27).

FAREWELL, CURT: RB Curtis Martin formally announced his retirement from the Jets and the NFL with an 11-stop media blitz around New York City. "Retirement's not an end but a beginning ... I don't see this as a sad time," Martin said (July 26).

CHREBET ENCORE: Wayne Chrebet returned to the Meadowlands turf one more time to be honored at halftime on Wayne Chrebet Day. Fittingly, the Jets defeated No. 80's favorite opponents, the Dolphins, 31-28, for their first win of the season (Sept. 23).

REMEMBER THE TITANS: The Jets set aside their green and white uniforms for navy and gold throwback threads worn by the New York Titans of 1960-62 and recognized four Titans who went on to play for the Jets' Super Bowl III team — WR Don Maynard, RB Bill Mathis, LB Larry Grantham and P Curley Johnson. The new look didn't help in the 16-9 loss to the Eagles (Oct. 14), but the Jets served in the navy one more time and scored their most points of the season in their 40-13 victory at Miami (Dec. 2).

NO. 28 AGAIN: Curtis Martin was back in the Meadowlands on Curtis Martin Day to receive tribute from Jets fans in honor of his outstanding career. The opponent was fitting — Pittsburgh is Martin's hometown — and the occasion helped lift the Jets to their most noteworthy win of the season, 19-16 in OT over the playoff-bound Steelers.

IN WITH THE NEW: The Jets made aggressive roster moves once the unrestricted free agency period began. They signed perennial Pro Bowl G Alan Faneca, OT Damien Woody, LB Calvin Pace, Pro Bowl FB Tony Richardson and TE Bubba Franks as free agents and traded with Carolina for DT Kris Jenkins. They also traded two former first-round picks, LB Jonathan Vilma (to New Orleans) and DT Dewayne Robertson (to Denver) (Feb. 29-April 25).

BRETT THE JET: GM Mike Tannenbaum struck a trade with Packers GM Ted Thompson that brought Brett Favre, the NFL's all-time passing leader to the Jets for a conditional (2009 third round) draft pick (Aug. 6). Favre made his Green & White debut in the second preseason game at home vs. the Redskins (Aug. 16) and his regular-season debut in the 20-14 victory over the Dolphins at Miami (Sept. 7). Favre finished the season with 22 touchdowns passes and led the Jets to a 9-7 record.

PILES OF POINTS: The Jets enjoyed two historic home offensive explosions. They stopped the Super Bowl-bound Arizona Cardinals, 56-35, grabbing a 35-0 halftime lead as Favre threw six touchdown passes for the first time in his career and tying Joe Namath's franchise record (Sept. 28). Against the Rams, the Jets opened a record-setting 40-0, first-half lead en route to a 47-3 victory, the largest margin-of-victory in franchise history (Nov. 9).

ROAD RAGE: The Jets 8-3 start was punctuated by the best three-game road stretch in franchise history. They trimmed the Bills (5-2 coming in), 26-17, at Buffalo (Nov. 2). Two weeks later they went to New England on Thursday night and outdueled the Patriots (6-3), 34-31, winning on Jay Feely's overtime field goal (Nov. 13). Finally, they knocked out the Titans (10-0), the NFL's last unbeaten team, 34-13 at Tennessee (Nov. 23).

EXIT ERIC: The day after their 2008 season ended with four losses in their last five games to finish 9-7, owner Woody Johnson and GM Mike Tannenbaum held a news conference to announce that Eric Mangini would not return after three seasons as the Jets head coach. He left with a 23-26 record, including a loss in his only playoff appearance after the 2006 season (Dec. 29).

REX REIGN BEGINS: After an aggressive three-week search, during which a half-dozen candidates were interviewed for the Jets' head-coaching position, owner Woody Johnson announced that Rex Ryan, the highly successful defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens from 2005-08, would become the team's 15th full-time head coach (Jan. 19).

NO. 4 SAYS NO MORE: The Jets place Brett Favre on the reserve/retired list, after his 18th NFL season. Favre told reporters on a conference call, "It was worth a shot for me to go to New York. I wish I could've played better down the stretch. I didn't. It's time to leave." (Feb. 11) The Jets released Favre on April 28.

National Football League and the American Football League, and he achieved that remarkable double with teams he patiently built, virtually from scratch, around Hall of Fame quarterbacks.

He took over the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, the second year of their existence, and guided them for nine seasons. The culmination of his tenure was the twin titles the Colts and QB Johnny Unitas won in 1958 and 1959. Baltimore beat the New York Giants both times, by 23-17 in sudden-death overtime in 1958 in "The Greatest Game Ever Played" and by 31-16 the following year.

In 1963, Ewbank moved to the New York Jets, formerly the bedraggled New York Titans from 1960-62. Once Joe Namath was drafted and signed in 1965, the Jets were on the way to their storybook 1968 season that was crowned with their Super Bowl III upset of Weeb's former team, the Colts. Ewbank retired from coaching after the 1973 season with a 134-130-7 record (73-78-6 in 11 Jets seasons).

Weeb, whose nickname came from a younger brother who mispronounced "Wilbur" during his youth in Indiana, was a 5'7" quarterback at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. He was a teammate of fellow coaching legend Paul Brown, who gave him his first pro football iob as a Cleveland Browns assistant coach from 1949-53, during which he helped develop yet another Hall of Fame QB, Otto Graham.

Ewbank was enshrined in Canton on July 29, 1978. At the time of his coaching retirement in 1973, his 130 regularseason wins ranked him fifth on the all-time list behind George Halas, Curly Lambeau, Steve Owen and Brown. Ewbank died at 91 on the 30th anniversary of "the Heidi Game," the Jets' 1968 regular-season loss to the Oakland Raiders.

amath will always be remembered for delivering on his Miami Touchdown Club "guarantee" and leading the New York Jets to their stunning 16-7 Super Bowl III upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts at the Orange Bowl. In 12 Jets seasons, No. 12 enjoyed a career as one of the game's most exciting and highly publicized QBs.

As John Madden, the former Oakland coach and fellow Hall of Famer, argued when Namath was left off the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team: "Some guys have had a lot of accomplishments. But with Joe, here's a guy who made a league."

Namath's place in history was assured with his first pro football act, the signing of a reported $427,000 contract in 1965 that gave the AFL its biggest victory in its costly interleague war with the NFL (the St. Louis Cardinals had also drafted Namath). "Broadway Joe" won the Jets' starting job in his third game on his way to AFL Rookie of the Year acclaim in 1965.

In 1967, he became the first pro to pass for 4,000 yards in a season. In 1968, he capped off AFL Player of the Year and unanimous All-Pro selections with MVP honors in Super Bowl III for his efficient 206-yard passing game in the wake of his pregame guarantee of victory. That Jets' win assured the competitive viability of the fledgling AFL-NFL championship series.

Despite the knee injuries that plagued him, Namath completed 1,886 passes for 27,663 yards and 173 TDs in 12 seasons with the Jets and a final year with the Los Angeles Rams. He enjoyed many exceptional days, one coming in the 1968 AFL title game when he threw three touchdown passes to lead New York's 27-23 win over Madden's Raiders. Another came in September 1972, when he outdid Johnny Unitas' 376-yard passing game with 496 yards and six TDs of his own in the Jets' 44-34 win at Baltimore.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times (1967-69, 1972) and was named to the AFL's all-time team in 1969. He was also selected for four AFL All-Star Games and one Pro Rowl

DON MAYNARD 🏩 INDUCTED 1987

WIDE RECEIVER (1960-72)

6'1", 185 . . . BORN IN CROSBYTON, TX, JAN. 25, 1935 . TEXAS WESTERN . . . 1958 NEW YORK GIANTS, 1960-62 NEW YORK TITANS, 1963-72 NEW YORK JETS, 1973 ST. LOUIS CARDINALS . . . 633 RECEPTIONS FOR 11,834 YARDS, 88 TOUCHDOWNS . . . AT LEAST 50 CATCHES AND 1,000 YARDS IN FIVE DIFFERENT SEASONS.

aynard was a man of many distinctions in Jets franchise history. He was the first player to sign with the brand-new New York Titans of the AFL in 1960. He was one of the few noteworthy players left on the Titans when they morphed into the Jets in 1963.

And after 13 seasons, most of them in exquisite collaboration with Joe Namath and another top-notch wideout in George Sauer, Maynard left the Jets with franchise career receiving records that still stand today: receptions (627), yardage (11,732) and touchdowns (88).

He traveled a bumpy road to stardom, beginning with four productive seasons at tiny Texas Western College, for which he was a two-time All-Border Conference halfback and track star. He was a future pick of the New York Giants in 1957 but played only the 1958 season with the Giants before heading north of the border to Hamilton in the CFL in 1959.

Maynard often had to improvise as the Titans' and early Jets' constantly rotating crop of QBs scrambled for their lives. That all changed when, in 1965, Namath arrived on the scene. Maynard had many big games, none bigger than the 27-23 victory over Oakland in the 1968 AFL Championship Game that vaulted the Jets into Super Bowl III. Maynard caught six passes for 118 yards, with his 14-yard touchdown reception in the first guarter giving the Jets the early lead and his 6-yard grab in the fourth guarter providing the game-winning TD.

Maynard never led the AFL or NFL in receiving in any one season, but when he retired after one final year with the St. Louis Cardinals, he was one of only five players with at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. He was a four-time AFL All-Star (1965, 1967-69) and was named to the AFL's all-time team in 1969. His 633 receptions and 11.834 yards were both pro records when he retired after the 1973 season.

JOHN RIGGINS A INDUCTED 1992

NEWYORKJETS.COM

RUNNING BACK (1971-75)

6'2", 240 . . . BORN IN SENECA, KS, AUG. 4, 1949 . . . KANSAS . . . 1971-75 NEW YORK JETS, 1976-79, 1981-85 WASHINGTON REDSKINS . . . 11,352 RUSHING YARDS, 116 TOTAL TOUCHDOWNS . . . MVP OF SUPER BOWL XVII WITH 166 RUSHING YARDS. INCLUDING GAME-WINNING 43-YARD TD RUN

iggins cemented his NFL reputation as a Redskin, but for The first five years of his 14-year career, he built his Hall of Fame foundation in New York.

"Riggo," an All-American at Kansas, was the Jets' first pick, sixth overall, in 1971. He was the quintessential workhorse ballcarrier who specialized in gaining tough yardage in big games.

He played that half-decade in green, rushing for 3,880 yards on 928 carries (4.2-yard average) and 25 touchdowns. Then he left for the Redskins as a free agent and played nine more seasons.

Riggins rushed for more than 1,000 yards five times (once as a Jet) and for more than 100 yards in 35 games (10 as a Jet). He piled up impressive career stats — 11,352 yards and 104 touchdowns rushing, 13,442 yards and 116 touchdowns from scrimmage.

In Super Bowl XVII, he was named MVP for his 166 rushing yards on a then-record 38 carries, including the relentless 43-yard touchdown run that clinched Washington's 27-17 victory over Miami. Riggins followed that Super Bowl success with a sensational 1983 campaign in which he rushed for a career-high 1,347 yards and 24 touchdowns, setting a league record that stood for 12 seasons. After Super Bowl XVIII, he was named All-Pro for the only time in his career.

RONNIE LOTT INDUCTED 2000 SAFETY (1993-94)

6'0", 203 . . . BORN IN ALBUQUERQUE, NM, MAY 8, 1959 . . . SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA . . . 1981-90 SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS, 1991-92 LOS ANGELES RAIDERS, 1993-94 NEW YORK JETS . . . 10 PRO BOWLS, EIGHT-TIME ALL-PRO, 63 CAREER INTERCEPTIONS . . . NAMED TO NFL'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM.

ott made only a career-closing two-year stop with the Jets, but he brought a lot with him: his hard-hitting style, winning mentality, trademark athleticism and uncanny ability to sense the direction a play was about to take and then somehow disrupt it.

An All-American at USC, Lott was San Francisco's first-round selection, eighth overall, in 1981. He was the 49ers' starting left cornerback from his first day in training camp. In his rookie season, he led a young secondary that helped the Niners win Super Bowl XVI. En route, he became the second rookie in NFL history to return three interceptions for touchdowns.

Lott played and started at all four base secondary positions in his 14-year career and earned 10 Pro Bowl invitations. In 1986, perhaps his finest season, he played 14 games at FS before an injury sidelined him, yet led the league with a career-high 10 interceptions.

He had five 100-tackle seasons and finished with 63 career interceptions, his final three coming with the Jets in 1993. In 20 playoff starts, he had nine interceptions, 89 tackles, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two touchdowns, and earned four Super Bowl rings with the 49ers.

ART MONK 🏩 INDUCTED 2008

WIDE RECEIVER (1994)

6'3", 210...BORN IN WHITE PLAINS, NY, DECEMBER 5, 1957...SYRACUSE ...1980-1993 WASHINGTON REDSKINS, 1994 NEW YORK JETS, 1995 PHILADELPHIA EAGLES. . . FINISHED CAREER WITH 940 CATCHES. . . NAMED TO THREE PRO BOWLS. . . ALL-PRO CHOICE TWICE.

onk came quietly to the Jets for the penultimate year of his pro career, 1994. He was the respected, soft-spoken third option in the Jets' passing game behind fellow Syracuse product Rob Moore and Johnny Mitchell. Monk then exited as quietly as he had arrived. But he contributed some of his greatness in his 16 games as a Jet that helped him gain entry to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2008.

He had modest numbers (46 passes, 581 yards, three touchdowns) that year, but he caught at least one pass in every game. That became significant in Game 14, when on the first offensive play, Boomer Esiason went to him for a 5-yard completion that lifted Monk past Steve Largent to his then NFL-record 178th consecutive game with a reception.

Monk left with that record and the pro mark for most career receptions, which rose to 183 consecutive games and 940 catches, both records since eclipsed by Jerry Rice. Monk's 14 seasons in Washington were where he starred - nine 50-reception seasons, including his then-record 106 catches in 1984, five 1,000-yard seasons, three Pro Bowl berths, two All-Pro selections and three Super Bowl titles.

JETS' DRAFT HISTORY

General manager Mike Tannenbaum and owner Woody Johnson continued the Jets' recent draft trends by trading up in the first round of the 2009 NFL Draft to get the player they wanted in Mark Sanchez.

MEDIA GUIDE 2009

"It's all about 'the big O,' " Tannenbaum said. "It's all about the opportunity presenting itself."

The Jets sent their 17th overall pick, their second-round choice and three players (Kenyon Coleman, Abram Elam and Brett Ratliff) to their former coach, Eric Mangini, and the Browns in exchange for the fifth pick, which they used to select Sanchez, the talented, charismatic Southern Cal QB.

The trade was the fourth Tannenbaum had made in his four years as GM that involved receiving a first-round pick. The first two produced Pro Bowl players — center Nick Mangold in 2006, cornerback Darrelle Revis in 2007 — and there are high hopes for last year's selection of tight end Dustin Keller and this year's move to get Sanchez.

Further, it was the 17th time the Jets have acquired a first-round pick by trade in their history, the 13th time they'd done that since 1993 and the ninth time since Johnson became the club's Chairman and CEO in 2000.

The first time was so far the best as the Jets and owner Sonny Werblin set the stage for the 1965 AFL Draft, actually held Nov. 28, 1964. They sent the rights to QB Jerry Rhome, their 25th-round pick a year earlier, to Houston for the first pick overall, with which they selected Alabama QB Joe Namath. St. Louis took Namath 12th in the NFL draft, held the same day. Namath went with the Jets and a month later, the day after the Orange Bowl, signed a contract with Werblin for a then-record salary reported to be $427,000.

The Jets have had many drafting highlights since. In the 1965 redshirt draft, they completed Namath's wide receiver tandem when they picked George Sauer to team with Don Maynard. In 1966 they used their sixth-rounder on halfback Emerson Boozer to add to Namath and Snell and complete the starting backfield for their Super Bowl glory to come.

In 1967 the Green & White struck perhaps the greatest bargain in their draft history when guard Randy Rasmussen from Kearney State in Nebraska arrived in Round 12, with the 302nd pick. Rasmussen played in 207 games — the most by a position player in franchise history — over 15 seasons and earned team MVP honors in 1977.

RB John Riggins was the sixth overall pick in 1971. "Riggo" spent the first five seasons of his Hall of Fame career as the Jets' featured runner before leaving for Washington as a free agent.

For the first time, the Jets in 1975 traded away a firstround pick. They sent their 12th choice to New Orleans for DE Billy Newsome, who played two seasons and 16 games in New York.

It was déjà vu all over again in 1976 — 11 years after striking it rich with Namath, the club claimed Alabama quarterback Richard Todd sixth overall. Todd started six games to Namath's eight that season, then after Namath's release became the full-time starter for the next seven seasons.

In 1980, the Green & White performed one of their biggest draftday power moves. They sent their 13th pick and the 20th choice, one of two high picks they got from Denver for the February trade of QB Matt Robinson, to San Francisco for the No. 2 pick. The target of their desire: Texas WR Johnny "Lam" Jones, who had 25 receptions as a rookie and 138 in his five-year Jets career.

The 1983 selection of QB Ken O'Brien at No. 24 led to the trade of Todd to New Orleans before the '84 draft. With that 15th pick the Jets grabbed DE Ron Faurot, who had a 20-game pro career.

The only time they spent a first-round pick in a supplemental draft came in 1990. WR Rob Moore had a strong 12-year NFL career, the first five seasons producing 306 catches in green.

QB played a role in a 1993 maneuver when general manager Dick Steinberg sent a third-rounder to Cincinnati to bring Boomer Esiason back to his Long Island roots. As a result, O'Brien was sent to Green Bay for a fifth-rounder that year.

Then came Draft Day '93 and another high-first-round move. The Jets dropped one notch, from third to fourth, in swapping spots with Phoenix. In return, they received RB Johnny Johnson, their tailback for two seasons, and drafted LB Marvin Jones, who enjoyed a solid 11-year pro career.

The next year the Jets leapfrogged up, not down, one spot, from 13 to 12, in a trade with New Orleans that brought them CB Aaron Glenn. In 1995 they shipped Rob Moore to Arizona for RB Ronald Moore and the Cards' 16th pick, with which they snared DE Hugh Douglas after taking TE Kyle Brady at No. 9.

The club had the first pick of the draft in 1996 and '97. The first year they went with Southern Cal WR Keyshawn Johnson, who starred alongside free agent WR Wayne Chrebet for four seasons. The next, Bill Parcells took over the football operations and traded down from No. 1 twice before selecting LB James Farrior eighth overall.

Parcells had no No. 1's in 1998 and '99 but made up for it with an NFL-record four first-rounders in 2000, with which the Jets selected their "four aces" — defensive ends Shaun Ellis (No. 12) and John Abraham (No. 13), QB Chad Pennington (No. 18) and TE Anthony Becht (No. 27).

Terry Bradway, in his first draft in 2001 after taking over the GM reins from Parcells, moved from 19th to 16th in a trade with Pittsburgh to select WR Santana Moss. An even larger gambit came in '03 when the Jets sent two first-rounders (Nos. 13 and 22) to Chicago for the Bears' fourth spot, from where they secured DT Dewayne Robertson.

Tannenbaum succeeded Bradway as GM, and in his first draft spent the 29th overall pick, acquired from Atlanta in the trade for Abraham, on Mangold to team up with No. 4 choice D'Brickashaw Ferguson on the Jets' rebuilt offensive line. In 2007, Tannenbaum traded up twice, grabbing Revis with the 14th overall pick and linebacker David Harris in Round 2.

In 2008, the Jets took linebacker Vernon Gholston with their own pick, sixth overall, then traded back into Round 1 to snare Keller at No. 30. In April, after moving for Sanchez, they traded up again in Round 3, this time with Detroit for the first pick of day two, and took lowa RB Shonn Greene.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING - 11.24.60

hen Titans' founder Harry Wismer announced the 1960 schedule, he trumpeted the Thanksgiving Day game as an annual fixture to the AFL landscape. The victory for the Titans that first Thanksgiving Day was the first of three straight for the franchise, which in becoming the Jets in 1963 gave up the traditional spot on the calendar. The Jets have only appeared three times since 1962 on Thanksgiving Day, losing to the Detroit Lions in 1972 and 1985 and, in a renewal of the original Thanksgiving rivalry, they lost to the Dallas Cowboys in 2007.

TITANS 41, TEXANS 35

7-23

16-24

"A piping-hot Turkey Day football feast, stuffed with 76 juicy points, whetted the appetites of 14,344 late diners at the Polo Grounds, as the Titans outgorged the Dallas Texans, 41-35...Most responsible for the satisfying PG finale was AI Dorow, the hairless wower. He fired the ball 301 yards via 21 completions in 33 heaves - mostly to Don Maynard and Art Powell, the most sure-handed duo in the loop...It seemed, with the fourth period well under way, that the Titans had a breeze. Maynard's incredible pass-clutching, with defenders clinging to his thin neck, had moved New York ahead, 34-13. Then the Texans came on with a rush as big as all Alaska. They scored three TDs within a space of seven minutes – and in between their second and third scores, the Titans also put one across. That's the type of game it was."

he Jets advanced to Super Bowl III with this thrilling, see-saw 27-23 victory over Oakland before a record crowd of 62,627 in chilly and windy Shea Stadium. A bizarre play, Daryle Lamonica's lateral pass to Charlie Smith that rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker inside the final two minutes, sealed the victory. The Jets opened the scoring when Joe Namath, with three touchdown passes on the day, threw his first, a 14-yarder to Don Maynard. After a Jim Turner field goal extended the lead, Lamonica hit Fred Biletnikoff on a 29-yard scoring strike to pull the Raiders to 10-7. With the score 13-13. Namath struck again. this time 20 yards to tight end Pete Lammons. After a George Blanda field goal, George Atkinson returned a Namath interception to the Jets' five yard line, where Pete Banaszak's touchdown run gave the Raiders their first lead, 23-20, midway through the fourth quarter. Namath brought the Jets back quickly and efficiently, and his six yard scoring pass to Maynard gave the Jets the lead to stay and a date with destiny and the Balitmore Colts in Miami. The victory also gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the distinction of becoming the first coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

efying the oddsmakers and the strength of NFL tradition, the New York Jets became the first American Football League team to win a Super Bowl by rumbling over the NFL's Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph, becoming World Champions in only the franchise's 10th season in existence.

Many point to this game as the trigger that led to the merger between the NFL and AFL after the 1969 season.

As was the case for most of the 1968 season, Super Bowl MVP Joe Namath led the Jets to Super Bowl glory. The All-Pro QB who "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a secondquarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goal by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The Jets' defense deserved as much credit as the offense, intercepting the Colts four times, including three on Earl Morrall in the first half. In all, Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each as the defensive unit harassed Colts' quarterbacks Morrall and the legendary Johnny Unitas, allowing them to complete only 17-of-41 passes. It was Unitas and his sore elbow that came off the bench to lead the Colts to their only touchdown late in the fourth quarter and avoid a Super Bowl shutout.

The victory was the third championship in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout crowd of 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, the weather got the best of both teams as the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series. Not until the fourth guarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-vard field goal to tie it. 6-6. Two plays later. Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor on a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jets' 19. Dawson then fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game. Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incompletion and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the World Championship.

n one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out. The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built a 24-0 second-quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 45-yard touchdown to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left. The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored two quick touchdowns and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out, and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80 yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills' 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

he Jets mixed solid, hard-hitting football with a measure of razzle-dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in this Wild Card contest. The game was highlighted by Freeman McNeil's 202 yards rushing, the third-highest total in playoff history, a touchdown pass from McNeil and a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown by Darrol Ray to secure the win. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again when the Jets' defense made the play of the day as nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the Jets' one-yard line. With McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered.

The Jets sprung upser number

Divisional Championship clash, beating he Jets sprung upset number two in this the Raiders to enter the AFC Championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard touchdown run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last three minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy field goal, but the Raiders came storming back in the second half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Jim Plunkett at the Los Angeles 27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a Freeman McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Mehl then made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0, earning them a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game, which saw a total of 12 turnovers, as he notched three interceptions, returning the final one 35 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries. It was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0 at halftime. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

New England came out on top 26-14 in a game that saw the Jets self-destruct, committing four costly turnovers which led to 17 Patriots points. New England, which went on to win the AFC Championship, played an almost flawless game with no turnovers and only one penalty. The Jets were ahead 7-6, and driving late in the 2nd quarter when Ken O'Brien was intercepted on the 7-yard line. Six plays later, New England came back with a touchdown pass from Tony Eason, who avoided a blitz and hit Stanley Morgan. O'Brien suffered a concussion on the final play of the half on an Andre Tippett sack and would only play the first series of the second half. Before Pat Ryan could relieve him though, New England added a field goal and then scored a touchdown when the ensuing kickoff was fumbled by Johnny Hector and returned 15 yards by Johnny Rembert. With the Jets trailing 23-7, Ryan came in and directed a touchdown drive.

Jets Offense

Joe Walton started Pat Ryan to give the team an emotional lift and they got just that from their quarterback, who added a key running play and a three-touchdown passing performance. Freeman McNeil's 135-yard rushing performance also helped spark the Jets' first home playoff win since 1968. Trailing 6-0, Ryan ran a quarterback draw for 24 yards from the KC 33 on a fourth-and-six play to set up the Jets' go-ahead touchdown. On the first down of the ensuing series, the Jets defense forced a KC fumble and Ryan capped a 12-play, 47-yard drive with a one-yard pass to McNeil. Just prior to the half, Ryan hit Al Toon with a touchdown pass for a 21-6 halftime edge. The Jets nailed the victory on the first play of the second half when Kevin McArthur swiped a Todd Blackledge pass and dashed 21 yards for a 28-6 margin. The Jets' defense allowed a season-low 241 yards total offense and had 2 sacks, 2 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery.

n the third-longest game in NFL history (77:02), Cleveland staged an incredible comeback to send the game into overtime before Mark Moseley's 27-yard field goal in the second overtime session advanced the Browns to the AFC Championship game. With Pat Ryan at guarterback, the Jets jumped on top 7-0 on a flea-flicker 42-yard touchdown pass from Ryan to Wesley Walker. Ryan was forced to leave the game in the second quarter with a groin injury and was replaced by Ken O'Brien. Meanwhile, the Jets defense was outstanding, holding the Browns to just 10 points and 302 total yards until late in the fourth quarter. Immediately after a Jerry Holmes interception, the Jets took a 20-10 lead on Freeman McNeil's 25-vard touchdown with 4:14 remaining in regulation. But Bernie Kosar led the Browns 68 yards to set up Kevin Mack's one-vard run to make the score 20-17 with 1:57 left. Cleveland's defense forced the Jets to punt with 51 seconds left before Kosar's 37-yard pass to Webster Slaughter set up the tying 22-yard field goal. The Jets got a second life when Moseley missed a 23-vard field goal 6:06 into overtime, but he redeemed himself by kicking the winning 27-yard field goal on a first-and-goal play.

he Jets returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1986 and came close to registering an upset win at Houston. Trailing 17-10 with only 20 seconds left at the Houston 47, the Jets were unsuccessful in their attempts to tie the game on two Hail Mary passes, the last of which was intercepted to end the game. The game started with Houston taking the opening drive 80 yards in 16 plays for a 7-0 lead. After Erik McMillan's interception halted the Oilers' next drive, the Jets tied the game on Al Toon's first touchdown of the season, a 10-yarder from Ken O'Brien. Warren Moon tossed his second touchdown pass of the game to Earnest Givens to give the Oilers a 14-10 halftime lead. Three key plays would doom the Jets in the second half. After taking the opening drive of the third quarter down to the Houston seven-yard line in 12 plays, O'Brien's pass intended for Mark Boyer was picked off by Bubba McDowell at the three. Houston then drove 62 yards in 14 plays for a 53-yard field goal to go ahead 17-10. On the Jets' next drive, Brad Baxter was stopped on third-and-one for no gain from the three-yard line, and then Freeman McNeil was halted on fourth-and-one. The Jets got another shot when Lonnie Young's hit forced Moon to fumble at the Houston 34 with 4:59 left, but the Oilers' defense stopped the Jets on four downs. The Jets' defense played extremely well in holding the high-powered Houston offense to just 17 points while registering four sacks, two forced fumbles and one interception.

he Jets came out roaring, scoring on their opening drive, a 7-play, 70-yard march capped by Testaverde's 21-yard touchdown pass to Keyshawn Johnson. In the 2nd quarter the Jets held the ball for 14:09 and built their lead to 17-0 on Hall's 52-yard field goal (a Jets' postseason record for longest field goal), and a 10-yard end-around run for a touchdown by Johnson. But with six seconds left in the half, Mark Brunell hit Jimmy Smith in stride with a 52-yard touchdown bomb, cutting the lead to 17-7. Early in the third quarter the teams traded touchdowns, with Curtis Martin scoring on a Corwin Brown interception and Brunell taking advantage of an 88-yard kickoff return, completing a three-yard touchdown pass to Keenan McCardell. The Jets answered back with another 70-yard drive, culminated by Martin's second touchdown of the game, a one-yarder on a pitchout for a 31-14 lead. The Jaguars pulled within 10 points twice in the fourth quarter, but Keyshawn Johnson wiped out the Jags' final chance with an interception on Brunell's Hail Mary with 20 seconds left. On the day, Johnson produced a rare football feat scoring touchdowns on a reception and a run, recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass. All told, Johnson tied a club postseason record for catches with 9-121-1 touchdown. and tied the club touchdown mark for postseason with 2. Martin had a combined 182 yards and two touchdowns on the day.

Appearing in the AFC Championship for the first time since 1982, the Jets battled the Super Bowl Champions Denver Broncos tough all day, but in the end were unable to play the type of mistake-free football that the team had played for most of the season. The Jets held the Broncos to only 108 yards of total offense in that half, highlighted by a goal-line stand in the first quarter. The stunned Mile High Stadium crowd was further silenced in the third quarter when rookie TE Blake Spence blocked Tom Rouen's punt and Fred Baxter recovered at the one-yard line. Curtis Martin scored on the next play, giving the Jets a 10-0 lead. John Elway, in his last game at Mile High Stadium, drove Denver down the field for a score to cut it to 10-7. The ensuing kickoff sailed into the teeth of gusting 45-MPH winds and was recovered by the Broncos at the Jets' 31. The Broncos took a 13-10 lead on the second of two Jason Elam field goals and never looked back, clinching their trip to Miami. The Jets were experiencing success through the air behind the precision passing of Vinny Testaverde, but were unable to hold onto the ball, fumbling four times and having two other passes deflected into the hands of Denver defenders, as their dream season ended one game short of the Super Bowl.

Just the week before this Wild Card contest, the 2001 squad became the first Jets' team to qualify for post-season play under a first-year head coach when they defeated the Oakland Raiders, 24-22, at Network Associates Coliseum. Head Coach Herman Edwards led his 10-6 Jets back to Oakland, where the Raiders jumped out to a 16-3, halftime lead. The Jets opened the third quarter with an eight-play, 72-yard drive capped by quarterback Vinny Testaverde's 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Wayne Chrebet, closing the score to 16-10. Raiders' linebacker James Harris and cornerback Charles Woodson then forced a Richie Anderson fumble which led to a Raider touchdown. Down 24-10, the Jets stormed back with a 10-play, 64-yard drive culminating in a three-yard touchdown pass from Testaverde to Anderson. With 1:49 left and the Jets down 31-24 with two timeouts, Raider running back Charlie Garner took a pitch around the right end and raced 80 yards for the game's final touchdown to knock the Jets out of the playoffs.

New York started the season 1-4, but won seven of its last nine games to earn the AFC East title on the final day of the season. The surge continued against the Colts, as the Jets recorded their first postseason victory since 1998. On only the Jets' fifth offensive play on the day, Chad Pennington's screen pass to Richie Anderson turned into a 56-yard score. The play was the longest of Anderson's 10-year career and the longest play for the Jets in 1998. After a field goal, Ray Mickens recovered a Troy Walters fumbled kickoff, and LaMont Jordan's one-yard run made it 17-0. That lead became 24-0 with 37 seconds remaining in the first half when Pennington rolled out and found Santana Moss in the right corner of the end zone. The score matched the Jets' biggest playoff output in a half. Chad Morton ran the second-half kickoff 70 yards to the Indy 19 setting up a 39-yard field goal by John Hall. Rookie tight end Chris Baker caught his first career touchdown pass, a three-yard reception late in the third quarter.

HISTORY

For the second straight year the Raiders ended the Jets' season in Oakland in a playoff game. The game was tied 10-10 at halftime but after Tory James' leaping sideline interception at the Jets' 45, Rich Gannon hit Tim Brown for 15 yards then found Jerry Porter streaking down the left sideline and connected for a 29-yard touchdown. Oakland stopped the Jets on a fourth-and-two to get the ball back. Gannon then connected with Porter over the middle for 50 yards. It took only three more plays for Gannon to hit Jerry Rice in the back of the end zone. On the Jets' next possession, a muffed handoff turned into a costly fumble recovered by the Raiders. but Damien Robinson returned the favor as he intercepted Rich Gannon's next pass. In a game of turnovers, Oakland's Eric Barton made a sideline interception setting up Sebastian Janikowski's 34-yard field goal. The Jets' only two scores came off of a 38-yard John Hall field goal and an impressive 81-yard, seven-minute drive on which Chad Pennington was eight-of-nine for 51 yards and found Jerald Sowell for a one-yard score.

had Pennington, bothered for the Clast five games by a strained rotator cuff, moved New York into range for Doug Brien's 28-yard field goal with five seconds left in overtime and the Jets shocked the Chargers 20-17 in this Wild Card game. The winning drive started on the Jets 30 after Chargers' rookie Nate Kaeding was wide right on a 40-yard field goal try with 4:19 left in overtime. It included an 18-vard pass from Pennington to Santana Moss that was upheld on review. But the Chargers forced overtime when All-Pro tight end Antonio Gates caught a one-vard touchdown pass from Pro Bowler Drew Brees to tie it at 17 with 11 seconds left in regulation. That score came one play after Jets linebacker Eric Barton was whistled for a personal foul for hitting Brees on the helmet with his right forearm after Brees threw a desperation pass on fourth-and-goal that was batted down in the end zone. Pennington threw a go-ahead, 47-yard touchdown pass to Moss early in the third quarter. His second touchdown pass of the night, it went at least 55 yards in the air and Moss caught it two yards deep in the end zone after getting behind safety Jerry Wilson and cornerback Quentin Jammer, giving the Jets a 14-7 lead. A 15-yard unsportsmanlike conduct penalty gave the Jets the ball on the San Diego 37, and Pennington hit wide-open tight end Anthony Becht on a 13-yard touchdown pass five plays later that allowed the Jets to tie it at seven with just less than three minutes before halftime. With the score tied at seven and the Chargers on the Jets 37 with 1:30 left before halftime, Brees was intercepted by Reggie Tongue after Erik Coleman tipped the ball away from Keenan McCardell.

nce again, it came down to the final seconds. Once again, the Jets battled hard against a heavily-favored opponent that conventional wisdom would dictate they had no business playing so close. And once again, the Jets placed their hopes on the right foot of kicker Doug Brien, who the week before had carried them to a victory in a playoff game and preserved their improbable postseason hopes. But this game would have a different ending. Finally undone by the opportunistic brand of football that had led so often to success in their surprising season, the Jets fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 20-17, in overtime this AFC Divisional playoff game. It was a hard-fought defensive battle in which Brien missed two field-goal attempts in the final 2:02 of regulation, the last as time expired.

After Brien's 47-yarder went wide, Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by David Barrett. The Jets advanced the ball to the Steelers 25, giving Brien another chance with a 43-yard attempt.

While the Jets offense could not get into the end zone, the Jets turned two long touchdown returns, Santana Moss' 75-yard punt return (the first in Jets playoff history) and Reggie Tongue's 86-yard interception, into 17 consecutive points and a 17-10 lead in the fourth quarter.

PATRIOTS 7 10 6 14 - 37

The New England Patriots avenged their Week 10 home loss by defeating the New York Jets, 37-16, in the AFC Wild Card round.

The Patriots, behind a Corey Dillon rushing touchdown, jumped out to a 7-0 lead. A Mike Nugent field goal cut the Jets' deficit to four before the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Chad Pennington connected with Jerricho Cotchery on a 77-vard touchdown pass, highlighted by Cotchery's run after the catch, to push the Jets ahead, 10-7. The play was the longest of the season for the Jets and longest on offense in their playoff history.

The Patriots pulled ahead in the second half as Daniel Graham, Kevin Faulk and Asante Samuel scored touchdowns and Stephen Gostkowski added three field goals. The Samuel 36-yard interception return for a touchdown sealed the deal, giving the Pats a 37-16 lead with 4:54 remaining.

Mike Nugent added three field goals in the contest, tying a Jets record for most field goals in a playoff game.

2009 TRAINING CAMP

n April 20, 2009, the New York Jets announced that 2009 training camp will feature practices open to the public in three different locations throughout the tri-state area - upstate New York, Long Island and New Jersey.

SUNY Cortland hosts training camp beginning July 31. Team personnel researched several locations after Rex Ryan expressed a desire to take the team to a remote destination for training camp. Ample athletic facilities in a setting conducive to building team chemistry and SUNY Cortland's superior technological capabilities were among major reasons that Cortland was selected.

The Jets return to Long Island Aug. 12, for a special Family Night Practice presented by Verizon Fios at Hofstra University, the site of their former practice facility and training camp from 1968-2008.

Jets Chairman and CEO Woody Johnson, upon making the move to the state-of-the-art facility in Florham Park, assured fans that the team would return to Long Island for a summer practice on an annual basis.

In late August (22, 26 and 27), the Jets open up the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center to the public for three practices. As a precursor to training camp, the Jets, for the first time in team history, opened its June 2009 minicamp to the public as part of a week of activities at the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center.

UNIFORM HISTORY

IMAGES & TEXT COURTESY OF MAPLE LEAF PRODUCTIONS

The 1960 home jersey showcases the original 'Titans' color scheme of navy blue & gold. Notice the lack of any sleeve striping and the lack of any logo or identification on the team's helmet.

A conversion from navy blue & gold to the beloved green & white. Things to notice: Unique shoulder and sleeve striping; the number schematic on the jersey's sleeves; the unusual point or 'serif' of the uniform number '4'; and the helmet's 'jet' logo.

This 1965 home uniform featured a new helmet logo. The jet was removed, and in its place, a football outline, containing the word 'Jets' and the initials 'NY'. This same logo will be dropped in the early 1970's and then make a comeback in the late 1990's.

This 1968 road jersey showcases a few minor modifications from earlier years, including a different sleeve stripe configuration and a green belt.

On this road uniform, the team's logo has been radically altered consisting of the word 'Jets' in a sleek, modern font. What looks to be a supersonic-type jet is stationed just above the letters, branching off the 'J'. Then the sleeve striping has been simplified to two thick horizontal stripes. Finally, large numbers have been added to the shoulders, and the collar has been changed from white to green.

This 1986 Jets' home uniform features a white collar and thick, green single stripe down the pant legs.

Features the addition of thin, black outlines surrounding the jersey's stripes and numbers. This trim can also be seen sandwiching the thick, white stripe on the side of the pants. Also note the arrival of green pants, almost shiny in appearance. The Jets' pants have had a zippered front for the past decade, but now they've returned to a laced front.

Features the addition of thin, black outlines surrounding the jersey's stripes and numbers. This trim can also be seen sandwiching the aThis 1993 home uniform largely mirrors the road '90 uniform - right down to the thin, black trim surrounding the numbers & stripes. Look carefully and you'll see a small NFL shield on both the jersey's neckline and the left thigh of the pants. If you look closely at almost all NFL uniforms worn from 1991 on, you'll note this same small NFL shield patch on the jersey's neckline. Most NFL uniforms added the NFL logo patch to the neck, and to the upper left thigh of the pants, beginning in 1991.

On the left shoulder of this 1993 jersey is a patch commemorating the 25th anniversary of Super Bowl III. The patch says 'Twenty Fifth Anniversary' at the top, 'Super Bowl III Champions' at the bottom, with '1969' & '1993' sandwiching the Jets' logo of the mid-late 60's.thick, white stripe on the side of the pants. Also note the arrival of green pants, almost shiny in appearance. The Jets' pants have had a zippered front for the past decade, but now they've returned to a laced front.

The 1994 season marked the NFL's 75th anniversary. To help celebrate this milestone, most teams wore special 'throwback' sweaters commissioned by the NFL (note the diamond patch on the left shoulder signifying this occasion). The 1994 Jets' home uniform pictured here honors the uniform as worn by the Super Bowl Champs in 1968. Notice also the fact that the 1994 helmet featured the mid-late 60's helmet logo, the popular football-shaped logo.

1998

The 1998 Jets opted to keep the 'retro' style of their late 1960's/early 1970's uniforms - first show-cased by the 1994 'throwback' jersey. Note the unusual horizontal and vertical striping format on the sleeves, as well as the old-style Jets' logo on the upper left breast/shoulder area. The small, now traditional NFL shields can be seen on the jersey's neckline and the left thigh of the pants. Look carefully at the pants, and you'll also see that the Jets have reverted back to the double stripe style - used in the 1960's. Finally, the 'old-school' football-shaped helmet logo was so popular among fans in the 1994 throwback uniform that it has been reintroduced on the helmet.

2000

As the Jets enter the new millennium, the organization has melded design elements from both modern and past uniforms. This 2000 uniform still features the 'retro' style of Jets' uniforms from the 1960's - including the helmet logo, and unusual sleeve striping. Look closely and you'll see the thin, black trim surrounding the jersey's sleeve numbers - an element introduced in the 1990's.

2003

The Jets continued to wear the "retro" style uniform that first resurfaced in 1994, a look that is reminiscent of the Super Bowl champion Jets of the late 1960's. This white-on-green home jersey features a green torso with white detailing on the shoulders and white short sleeves with green cuffs. There are large white numerals on the front and back and small white "TV" numbers on the sleeves, below the shoulder. The jersey has a NY Jets' logo patch on the left shoulder. Note that the pants are white with green striping down the side. The pants have a lace-up fly and are fastened at the waist with a green belt that features the Jets logo on top of the buckle.

Jets Game Plan

Presented by Atlantic Health ATLANTIC HEALTH

Thursdays at 6:30 p.m., Jets Game Plan is a 30-minute preview show where analysts, coaches and players give a comprehensive look ahead at the week's upcoming matchup.

The sun never sets on Jets Nation! When the season ends, Jets Nation, hosted by Brian Custer and featuring Greg Buttle, Ray Lucas and Adam Schein, takes off, with a weekly studio-based series designed to give fans an inside look at Jets players, coaches and team personnel. Fans will be able to keep abreast of changes and watch as the Jets gear up for the upcoming season.

Jets Nation: Draft Day

SNY's all-access coverage of the Jets draft features interviews with Head Coach Rex Ryan and GM Mike Tannenbaum, as well as player profiles, in-depth analysis and debate on the Jets draft needs and interviews with Jets' draft picks. SNY reports on the Jets' draft from both SNY's street level studio located directly across the street from Radio City Music Hall where the NFL Draft takes place and from outside the Jets' draft room.

Jets Nation: Inside Jets Camp

SNY takes fans inside Jets training camp as the team gears up for the season. This weekly live one-hour show will provide a glimpse into what goes on in camp - the drills, conditioning, scrimmages, and more.

Jets Preseason Games

As the exclusive year-round home of the New York Jets, SNY will televise re-airs of two 2009 Jets preseason games vs. the Rams and Eagles. Ian Eagle and Greg Buttle have the call with Sam Ryan on the sideline for some of New York's highest-rated August programming.

BOB WISCHUSEN

NEW YORK JETS RADIO NETWORK - PLAY-BY-PLAY

Vischusen enters his eighth season as the play-by-play voice of the New York Jets. Wischusen first joined Marty Lyons in the Jets booth for the 2002 season. He began covering the Jets in 1996 as a reporter for WFAN, and from 1997-2001 hosted pregame and postgame shows for the Jets radio network. Over the last decade, Wischusen has proven to be one of the most versatile television and radio voices in the country. When not with the Jets, Wischusen is a play-by-play announcer for ESPN, calling college football and college basketball, as well as arena football, boxing, college baseball, college softball and WNBA basketball. In the New York market, Wischusen worked for MSG Network in a variety of rolls, calling New York Rangers hockey, New York Knicks and New York Liberty basketball and anchoring FSNY's New York Sports Report and MSG Network's SportsDesk. Wischusen's credits also include sideline reporting for NBC on Notre Dame football and NBA basketball telecasts and play-by-play for Westwood One radio and Comcast Network television. Raised in Westfield, NJ and a 1993 graduate of Boston College, Wischusen began his professional career at WQAM in Miami. In 1996, he moved to New York and joined WFAN, where he started hosting talk shows and anchoring while also covering the Jets. Wischusen currently resides in New Jersey with his wife Julie and their five children: Katrina, Charlie, Jimmy and twins, Ben and Cory.

MARTY LYONS

NEW YORK JETS RADIO NETWORK -ANALYST

founding member of the "New York Sack Exchange," Lyons lenters his eighth season as the Jets' radio analyst. Lyons was originally a first round draft pick of the New York Jets in the 1979 NFL Draft out of the University of Alabama after playing for Paul "Bear" Bryant. Together with teammates Mark Gastineau, Joe Klecko and Abdul Salaam, Lyons helped lead the 1981 Jets to a franchise-record 66 sacks, and the team's first playoff appearance since 1969. The "New York Sack Exchange" led the NFL in sacks for three of four seasons (1981, '83, '84). Lyons finished his NFL career with 43 sacks over 11 seasons for the Jets (1979-89), playing in 147 games, a record for a Jets' defensive lineman.

While a formidable force on the field, Lyons has made significant contributions off the field as well with his extensive charitable work. For his commitment to the community, he was named NFL Man of the Year in 1984. Lyons is the founder and chairman of the Marty Lyons Foundation, which attempts to fulfill special wishes to children diagnosed with terminal or chronic life-threatening illnesses. As a tribute to his longstanding charitable commitment, the New York Jets annually present the Marty Lyons Award to the player who gives the most back to his community as selected by the Jets staff. Lyons was the first recipient of this award in 1990.

He and his wife, Christine, currently reside in Smithtown, N.Y. Marty has four children - Rocky, Jesse, Megan and Luke.

Buttle is in his eighth season as the co-host of "Jets Gameday" and "Countdown to Kickoff" (pregame) and "The 5th Quarter" (postgame) on the Jets' broadcasts on 1050 ESPN Radio. Buttle and La Greca also host "The New York Sports Reporters" on 1050. One of the best linebackers in Jets' history, Buttle finished his nine-year career with 15 interceptions and 976 tackles. Originally selected by the Jets in the third round from Penn State where he played for the legendary Joe Paterno, the Linwood, NJ native went to make virtually every all-rookie team, as he led the Jets in tackles in 1976. As a rookie he uttered the memorable line, "they pay me to practice. Sundays I play for free."

Buttle, who was named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated after the 1979 season, scored two touchdowns in his career, both vs. the Patriots. One came on a 23-yard fumble return in his rookie season in 1976 and the other on a 44-yard interception return in 1977.

NEWYORKJETS.COM

Off the field, Buttle is an accomplished entrepreneur, with business ventures ranging from restaurants/catering to health clubs and parking lots located in close proximity to all of New York's major airports. Buttle, who was born in Atlantic City, was an all-state performer in football at Mainland (NJ) High School. He and his wife, Rita, reside on Long Island and have three children: daughters, Christina and Alegra, and one son, Gregory.

a Greca is in his eighth season as the co-host of "Jets Gameday" and "Countdown to Kickoff" (pregame) and "The 5th Quarter" (postgame) on the Jets' broadcasts on 1050 ESPN Radio. La Greca and Buttle also host "The New York Sports Reporters" on 1050.

La Greca, a veteran of the sports radio industry for the past decade, is a key component of 1050 ESPN Radio. He got started in sports radio at Sports Phone, where he updated scores while covering New York sports. La Greca has been a sports anchor at 1010 WINS, a talk show host at eYada.com, an update anchor at WFAN, where he covered the Jets in 2000 before joining 1050 ESPN Radio from its start. He was the very first voice of 1050 ESPN Radio on Sept. 3, 2001. La Greca is co-host of 1050's The Michael Kay Show, expanded to weekdays from 2-7 p.m. He has been part of the Kay show since 2002, as the primary fill-in host for Michael and as New York SportsCenter anchor and host of "New York Baseball Tonight" at 6 p.m. daily.

After many seasons of hosting the official Rangers' pregame and postgame shows on 1050, La Greca was added to the Rangers' radio broadcast team for the 2008-2009 season as the fill-in play-by-play announcer for lead announcer Kenny Albert. He also hosts 1050's weekly "New York Hockey This Week." His passion for hockey and expertise on the sport also makes him the ideal host of "NHL Live" on the NHL Network. La Greca graduated from Ramapo College in Mahwah, NJ. He resides in Somerset, NJ with his wife, Nancy.

CLEMSON SMITH MUÑIZ LOS JETS EN ESPAÑOL

lemson Smith Muñiz, who starts his 10th season as the voice of "los Jets en español", is a New York City broadcast pioneer. He called the first Jets game in Spanish in 1999 before taking over the play-by-play role permanently the following year.

He also was the first play-by-play announcer for "Army en español" (2005-present), "los Knicks en español" (1994-present) and "St. John's en español" (1994-97). And in 2009, he became the first Spanish-language play-by-play announcer for the new MLB Network, broadcasting "Thursday Night Baseball" on SAP. In addition, Smith Muñiz, one of the lead play-by-play announcers of Monday Night Football on Univisión Radio, including two Super Bowls, begins his eighth year working on the NFL's Spanish-language broadcasts.

Smith Muñiz is president of Smith Muñiz Productions; a Spanish-language sports broadcast and production company that helps teams, leagues, networks and publishers reach the growing Hispanic market. Beside the Jets and the other local teams, SMP's clients include HBO (Real Sports and Hard Knocks) and Major League Baseball.

Smith Muñiz grew up in Río Piedras, Puerto Rico. A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, he played wide receiver and tight end while lettering four times in Sprint football. He lives in Garrison, N.Y.
